Notes from Fr. Francis

Greetings, beloved parishioners of St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Parish! Allow me to introduce myself: my name is Fr. Francis Therese Krautter, and I am a Consecrated Religious from the Congregation of Saint John (the Apostle).

I am honored to be your new pastor and to begin to call this Parish home, and to call all of you my community. Along with me, four other brothers and priests from my religious community are moving to the parish to serve you and share our gifts with you: Fr. John Therese Creus (Parochial Vicar), Br. Gabriel Maria Martin (Liturgy), Fr. John James Archidiacono (Parochial Vicar at the Cathedral Basilica), Fr. Nathan Cromley (Saint John Institute).

I know that change can be scary and unsettling, especially when it involves something precious like your faith community. You may wonder what this transition will mean for you and for our parish. You may have doubts and fears about the future. I want to assure you, right from the start, that the most important things will not change: St. Ignatius of Loyola will continue to be called by that name and be dedicated to our Patron Saint. Holy Mass will continue to be celebrated according to the Roman Rite as it has been. The Sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church, such as Baptism, Marriage, Anointing of the Sick, Confession, Holy Communion will continue to be celebrated here. We will continue to hear the Word of God proclaimed, and the preaching will continue to shed light on the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Devotion to St. Ignatius of Loyola and his teachings will continue, and, most importantly, the love of God that unites us as one family will continue to be shared.

At the same time, I want to be clear about the main thing that is changing: the presence of a new religious order in your parish, the Congregation of Saint John. We are a community of brothers and priests who follow the charism of Saint John the Apostle. Fr. Marie-Dominique Philippe, a Dominican philosopher and theologian who died in 2006, started our community in 1975. Our spirituality is based on three pillars: contemplation, evangelization, and communion. We seek to contemplate Christ in prayer and study, to evangelize through preaching and teaching, and to live in communion with God and one another. We will have a special presentation about our community in the coming weeks to provide an opportunity for you to learn more about us.

We are not here to replace or erase the legacy of the Jesuits who have served this parish for nearly a century. We are here to build on their foundation and to enrich it with our own contribution and spirituality. We are here to help you grow in your relationship with Christ and His Church, and to invite you to join us in our mission of bringing His light and love to the world.

I know of your great charism of welcome, and I thank you for accepting the challenge to welcome us with open hearts and minds. We are eager to get to know you better. I look forward to meeting you personally after Masses or at any of the parish events and activities. Please feel free to contact me or any of my brothers if you have any questions or needs. You can also visit our website (<https://csjohn.org>) to learn more about our community, our history, our spirituality, and our mission.

THANK YOU LOYOLA COMMUNITY

Thank you to the entire Loyola Community for the blessings and well wishes for me at last Sunday's Mass. In the midst of our special time together, I felt so very touched. I'm especially grateful to the entire staff, Fr. Dirk and Fr. Pat. Deep thanks to Ed Dill and his family for all the "extras."

Please join me in offering prayers for Ed and his family. We are so grateful for the gifts of time and the many talents they shared with us. We wish them peace as they begin their ministry with a new community and know they will continue to share the love of Christ with everyone they serve.
