TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Fifty years or so ago, it was popular to teach that every Sunday is a "Little Easter." Today, after several decades of intense liturgical reform, it is more proper to think of today as a "Big Sunday." On every Sunday of the year, the Church is obliged to assemble, keeping the day holy. In most places, we hardly attain the goal of gathering all who are in Christ by baptism. Look around today and see what a Big Sunday looks like!

Our tradition speaks of remembering, anamnesis, as the antidote to "amnesia," the tragic forgetting of who God is and who we are as God's most beloved creation. On this Easter day, we are at our very best. We remember who God is, and we remember who we are in God's eyes: beloved sons and daughters, reborn to eternal life in baptismal waters. We rekindle our candles and reclaim our baptismal promises. As a "Big Sunday," today also reflects the character of festivity and leisure that should mark every Lord's Day. We wear "Sunday best" today, and we may take some time, especially in the northern states, to stroll through a budding garden. It is truly a "Big Sunday," and how different our lives would be if we took its values and traditions forward into all the Sundays of our lives. --Rev. James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co. ♦

EASTER SUNDAY

On Easter morning everything—the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music—everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today's scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the resurrection and sing "Alleluia!"

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter, Paul, & John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John's Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also witnesses the Resurrection & tells others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday do we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive & active in our lives?

"WE ARE WITNESSES OF ALL THAT HE DID"

The conviction & enthusiasm of eyewitness accounts gives them a ring of truth. The more eyewitnesses there are the more credible is their story. Different witnesses may have seen different things, or seen things differently, but they usually agree on the fundamental truth about what happened. The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, & John all give eyewitness accounts of the disciples discovering the empty tomb on the first Easter morning. Each Gospel records the scene a little differently, yet their credibility rests not on the precise details, but on the conviction of all the eyewitnesses. It is their belief in the truth that Christ is risen that convinces others to believe and to discover the truth for themselves.

The first reading throughout the Easter season is from the Acts of the Apostles, an eyewitness account showing the presence of Christ's Spirit acting within the community of believers after the Resurrection. Today Peter proclaims with conviction that Jesus was "raised on the third day" (Acts 10:40). He invites his audience to believe and experience the good news of God's saving love—for Jesus, for ourselves, and for all people everywhere.

CHRIST IS RISEN! RISEN INDEED!

"Christ is risen!" was once a common greeting on Easter morning. The expected reply, "Risen, indeed!" communicated the conviction of an eyewitness. In other words, the respondent was saying, "I myself have witnessed Christ's Spirit alive and active in my life and in the world." Like the eyewitnesses in today's scriptures, we are "witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead" (Acts 10:41). We are "commissioned . . . to preach to the people" (Acts 10:42) by giving eyewitness accounts of how the Spirit of the risen Christ is alive today. Our accounts may not agree in every detail, but the core truth will be the same: that Jesus Christ is risen! Risen, indeed!
