

Ordinary Time

October 4, 2015 ♦ Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

My mother was convinced that none of her children would get married. We were older when we were called to that vocation but, one by one, we did marry. I am happy to say that my husband and I continue to share this vocation three decades later, and we give our thanks to God. My sister was not as fortunate. After years of abuse, she divorced her husband. She did not make that decision lightly. She went into counseling, prayed, and talked. She considered her children, her husband, and herself. And she read and reread today's Gospel from Mark. In the end, her safety and the safety of her children was a major concern.

Jesus railed against the ease of divorce. A man had simply to hand his wife a piece of paper, and he could do so for any reason, including infertility and a failure to please him. But Jesus advances the woman's cause, refusing to allow her to be treated like a piece of property or disposed of at whim. He saw marriage as a sign of God's covenantal love and lifelong fidelity and exalts it as a sacrament. When both spouses commit themselves to each other and to their vocation, this grace is made manifest, and their bond is strengthened. But sin and human brokenness can interfere with God's plan, leaving separation or even divorce as the only option.

In the longer form of this reading, the people brought their children to Jesus, and he blessed them. Maybe we can do the same for those affected by abuse or divorce, so they too, at long last, can be healed.

The Roman Catholic community of the City of Sault Ste. Marie is privileged to have an Adoration Chapel where Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is present at all times. This Chapel is located in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church at 114 MacDonald Avenue.

We are running into difficulties where a lot of the Adorers are getting to an age where they are unable to attend the Chapel due to sickness or lack of transportation.

The Chapel is open from 6:00 a.m. until Midnight.

Anyone can drop in for a visit during that time;
however, we do need adorers committed to a weekly visit for an hour.

Thurs. 1-2 p.m. & 3-4 p.m.; Friday 4 –5 pm

United in Love....Let us go to serve! World Mission

Sunday has been set aside by Pope Pius XI in 1926, so that it can be the "feast of catholicity and universal solidarity" and that the whole world may publicly renew its commitment to the missionary movement: the propagation of the faith and the proclamation of the Gospel to all peoples. This year, World Mission Sunday will take place on October 18. It is celebrated on the same day in all the parishes around the world in order to allow us to make an offering to the poorest churches. Let us put together our hope and let us take the opportunity, during this month of missions to show solidarity with our poorest brothers and sisters of the suffering churches in Africa, Asia, Oceania, Europe and South America.
