CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP:

"Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around."

~ Leo Buscaglia

Grief is the conflicting feelings caused by a change or an end in a familiar pattern or behavior; it is the normal and natural reaction to loss. Our Bereavement Support Group meets Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Library. If you, or someone you know is grieving, please join us. These meetings will be confidential and held in a safe environment. Please RSVP with our Pastoral Care Coordinator, Laurie Fox by calling 757-937-8139 or email at lpcc@holyfamilyvb.org if you wish to attend.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS:

Fridays at 12:00 noon – Church of the Holy Family

RCIA

RCIA is short for the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." RCIA is the normative process where those who are interested in the Catholic Church have a time of teaching and discernment about a possible call to full participation in Catholicism.

RCIA is open to:

- Those adults who have not been baptized and are spiritually looking
- Those adults who have been baptized in a recognized non-Catholic Christian tradition
- Those adults who were baptized Catholic but have not celebrated Eucharist and Communion
- Those who just want to learn more about the Catholic Faith

Participating in RCIA does not mean that you have to become Catholic, but it does help you discern as to whether God is calling you to join the Catholic Faith.

Classes meet on Sundays at 9:30 a.m., in Room 147. Please contact Jeff Mingin in the Parish Office (757-481-5702) if you are interested in learning more.

CONSECRATED, SOLEMNLY

Each day I submit to you, O Lord,
All my soul and all my being
For, I know you are with and in me
In ev'rything I am doing and serving.

When I wake up ev'ry morning, O Lord, each day
Thanks be to You, for watching over me,
You are by my side, always.
In temptation or in uncertainty.

When anxiety and trouble crush down on me
And darkness conquers over my mind and vision
You are the guiding light for me to see,
Shining forth to my direction and destination.

Each day, O Lord, thanks be to You,
All protection, graces, and blessings, you're planting
Into my thoughts, my dreams, and my planning
Into my heart and my ev'rything.

Each day, O Lord, I lift up my pure heart,
And in my soul, my gratitude and sincerity,
My sincere prayer and meditation, to You
The wholeness of me, consecrated, earnestly

Yes, the wholeness of me, consecrated, completely,
To you, in ev'ryday of my lowly life
You gift me love, you gift me wisdom, abundantly,
You gift me vision of eternal light.

Though if my worldly life could span a thousand years,
Still, how could I repay, O Lord, how could I repay?
For, my life is blessed with Your fullness, always,
Like the sun rising in the East each morning,
Like ocean waves dancing to the shore, endlessly,
For Your sake, O my sweet Lord, I'm conforming,
Yes, conforming my will to yours,
Like river water longing to the sea,
Like flowers blossom, fruit ripens, in the obedience
And from deepest thoughts and prayers, emerge the passion,
Carry my cross, following the serving pathway
And all of me, consecrated, solemnly, to You, ev'ryday.

– Deacon Joe Nguyen

"CREATION CARE CORNER":

Last week's article by Elizabeth Varga, the founder of the blog, "At Elizabeth's Table," focused on her view towards the importance of a faith aspect on a plant-based diet.

This week my article will provide one of her delicious recipes from "At Elizabeth's Table" that can be easily made in 30 minutes. It is a mixture of broccoli, chickpeas, coconut milk, and curry spice.

Ingredients

- 1-1/2 cups vegetable stock
- 1 large yellow onion
- 4 garlic cloves minced
- 2 teaspoons of minced ginger
  - or 1/2 teaspoon of dried ginger
- 2 teaspoons of turmeric
- 1-1/2 teaspoons ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1 can unsweetened coconut milk
- 1 lb. broccoli florets
- 1 15 oz. can of chickpeas
- Salt and pepper

Are chickpeas a good source of protein? Chickpeas are a great source of plant-based protein, making them an excellent food for people who don't eat meat or animal products. A one cup (164-gram) serving provides about 14.5 grams of protein, which is comparable to the protein content of similar foods like black beans and lentils.

A Personal Note: When my son turned vegan he said, "Cows eat only grass and look at how much protein their bodies produce!" He's got a point!!

Broccoli sprouts load a lot of fiber and protein into just a few calories.... These sprouts are bursting with vitamins and other nutrients, including:

- Vitamin C
- Vitamin A
- Calcium
- Iron

The most helpful cookbook my wife has used since turning from meat-centered cooking to plant-based, is "Vegan Planet," by Robin Robertson, a native of Virginia Beach. In it she helps the uninitiated learn what to do with tofu, tempeh, seitan, and how to transition with delicious international sauces from meat to rice and many grains one has never heard of!
