“CREATION CARE CORNER:”

Among the effective measures available to decrease the prevalence of plastic bags at grocery stores and other businesses would be State Legislation. Reducing plastic bag use can mitigate harmful impacts to oceans, rivers, lakes, forests, and the wildlife that inhabit them. It can also relieve pressure on landfills and waste management. Some states have already imposed bans or fees to discourage the use of plastic bags altogether and others (unfortunately, not Virginia) are considering this legislation.

California became the first state to enact legislation imposing a statewide ban on single-use plastic bags at large retail stores in the November 2016 election.

Hawaii has a de facto statewide ban as all of its most populous counties prohibit non-biodegradable plastic bags at checkout. Honolulu became the last major county to approve the ban in 2015.

The third state to ban plastic bags was New York in 2019. The law, which went into effect in March 2020, applies to most single-use plastic bags provided by grocery stores and other retailers. The law there allows individual counties the option of placing a 5 cent fee on paper bags, with 2 cents to local governments and 3 cents to the state's Environmental Protection Fund.

In 2019 five other states passed legislation on this issue: they were Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Oregon, and Vermont. Vermont went further and placed restrictions on single-use straws and polystyrene containers.

Along with these states, some notable cities/counties also issued bans on plastic bags; namely, Boston; Chicago; Los Angeles; Boulder, Colorado; Montgomery County, Maryland; and New York City.

There are efforts being made to have the Virginia Beach City Council legislate a ban on plastic bags. What did these 8 states and 5 cities have that they were successful in obtaining legislature that banned plastic bags? What would it take for our state and our city to get serious about plastic bags and ban them? Worldwide, some 200 countries have agreed to develop a Global Plastics Treaty, which they are in the process of accomplishing. For such a global treaty to be strong, a holistic approach must be ensured to ending the plastic crisis by:

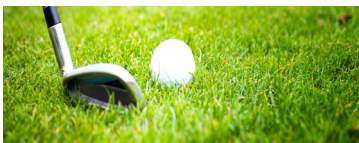

- Limiting plastic production and use
- Changing the ways corporations deliver products with focus on refill and reuse
- Holding corporate polluters accountable
- Demanding full transparency on plastic production, use, import, and export
- Requiring wealthy countries to lead the zero-waste and help others
- Ensuring indigenous peoples, frontline communities, waste pickers, and others affected

Workers have a voice in designing a just transition to a reuse economy.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY
BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

"Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around."

~ Leo Buscaglia

Grief is the conflicting feelings caused by a change or an end in a familiar pattern or behavior; it is the normal and natural reaction to loss. Our Bereavement Support Group meets Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Library. If you, or someone you know is grieving, please join us. These meetings will be confidential and held in a safe environment.

RCIA

RCIA is short for the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." RCIA is the normative process where those who are interested in the Catholic Church have a time of discernment about a possible call to full participation in the Catholic faith.

RCIA is open to:

- Those adults who have not been baptized and are spiritually looking
- Those adults who have been baptized in a recognized non-Catholic Christian tradition
- Those adults who were baptized Catholic but have not celebrated Eucharist and Communion

Participating in RCIA does not mean that you have to become Catholic, but it does help you discern as to whether God is calling you to join the Catholic Church.

Please contact the Parish Office at 757-481-5702 if you are interested in learning more.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You within my soul. Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

SUMMER MASS SCHEDULE
BEGINS SUNDAY, MAY 28
MASS TIMES ON SUNDAYS

PARISH LIFE: We need to have a Parish Life Committee meeting. But first we need to have a Committee. Parish Life consists of a number of subcommittees: Wine & Cheese, Funeral Hospitality, Coffee & Donuts, Parties.

If you are at all interested in any of these, please come to a meeting on Tuesday, May 23, at 6:00 p.m., Room 147. Come with ideas! We would like to have representation from Knights of Columbus. And as many as possible from all of the subcommittees.

NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS:

"Whoever loves me will keep my word." Are you called to bring the word of Christ to His flock? Call Fr. Brian Capuano at the Vocations Office, 804-359-5661, or email vocations@richmonddiocese.org.

ROSES FOR MOM

John stopped by the flower shop to place an order for some roses for his mom who lives about 400 miles from him. As he stepped out of his car, he saw a little girl crying in front of the shop. He came over and asked her why she was crying.

"I want to buy a rose to give to my mother," she sobs, "but I only have 75 cents, a rose costs 2 dollars."

He smiled and said to her, "Come into the shop and I will buy you some."

John told her to pick out some roses that she liked, he paid for her, and then placed an order of a dozen roses to send to his mother. He felt happy that he found some beautiful roses he knows his mom would love. He pictures her smiling when she receives them.

As they walk out of the flower shop, John asked her if she needs a drive home. She smiles happily and said, "Yes, please drive me to my mom's house, I will give her these beautiful roses."

She showed John the way and to his surprise they ended up in a cemetery, where there was a newly buried grave. She said, "This is my mom's house."

She gently placed the roses on the grave and murmured, "Mom, I love you and I miss you a lot."

Then she hugged and kissed the grave stone.

John hurried back to the flower shop and cancelled the delivery. He took the dozen roses with him and decided that he would surprise his mom. That afternoon, he drove all the way to deliver her his love. He would hug her, kiss her, and tell her that he loves and misses her a lot, just like that little girl said to her mom's grave.

"Whoever believes in me, will do the works that I do."
(John 14:12)

Love is not only what one says, nor cites, nor recites, but also what one's done that shows – I truly love you.

Have you hugged and kissed your Mom today?

Happy Mother's Day to all the Wonderful Mothers!
