"CREATION CARE CORNER:"

Some people could still be asking, "Why care about climate change?"

Although climate change is a crisis that requires immediate, drastic action, it can sometimes seem like nothing much is happening or that only far-off parts of the world are at risk. The world may not be ending as soon as tomorrow, but we are headed down a dangerous path!

Climate Change is everyone's problem. That includes future generations as well. Everyone needs to care about climate change. Here are some reasons to care about the impacts of climate change.

Climate change...

- ...is causing glaciers and ice to melt, resulting in rising sea levels. Water expands as it warms, causing oceans to swell in size. This water needs to go somewhere and that place will be the land we live on, causing millions of people to relocate.
- ...makes severe weather worse such as heat waves, heavy precipitation, hurricanes, tornadoes, and tropical storms. Think of droughts being worse than before, record amounts of snow, and devastation to cities torn apart by tornadoes, hurricanes, and melting snow floods and landslides.
- ...creates food shortages. Weather change will cause food and water shortages. When heavy rains and tropical storms flood our farmland, crops and livestock can't survive. When droughts and heat waves last longer, are hotter and more frequent, plants and animals lack the water they need. Climate change also threatens to disrupt the global food supply. Severe weather events can keep cargo ships from crossing the ocean, and floods and wildfires can cut off road and rail networks.
- ...is bad for our health. Severe weather events and airborne pollutions will increase the risk of heart disease, asthma, and mental health problems.
- ...is expensive. Natural disasters cost millions of dollars in clean-up expenses. This money comes from us with our tax dollars.
- ...endangers other species. Climate change will lead to a loss of biodiversity and animal life. The outcome is fewer pollinators, who are essential for our food supply and fewer plankton, which live in the ocean, feed other sea creatures, and produce energy.

Pope Paul VI wrote in 1971... "Due to an ill-considered exploitation of nature, humanity runs the risk of destroying it and becoming in turn a victim of this degradation."

In view of these facts, it is incumbent on us to do what we can to impress upon our leaders, those who are nonchalant about the threat and those who are contributing to the threat, the importance and seriousness of our climate situation.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY
BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

"Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around."

~ Leo Buscaglia

Grief is the conflicting feelings caused by a change or an end in a familiar pattern or behavior; it is the normal and natural reaction to loss. Our Bereavement Support Group meets Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Library. If you, or someone you know is grieving, please join us. These meetings will be confidential and held in a safe environment.

RCIA

RCIA is short for the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." RCIA is the normative process where those who are interested in the Catholic Church have a time of discernment about a possible call to full participation in the Catholic faith.

RCIA is open to:

- Those adults who have not been baptized and are spiritually looking
- Those adults who have been baptized in a recognized non-Catholic Christian tradition
- Those adults who were baptized Catholic but have not celebrated Eucharist and Communion

Participating in RCIA does not mean that you have to become Catholic, but it does help you discern as to whether God is calling you to join the Catholic Church.

Please contact the Parish Office at 757-481-5702 if you are interested in learning more.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You within my soul. Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

SUMMER MASS SCHEDULE BEGINS
SUNDAY, MAY 28
