PART-TIME EARLY CHILDHOOD AND OCIC COORDINATOR:

Church of the Holy Family seeks a part-time coordinator of Baptisms, CLOW (Children's Liturgy of the Word), Sunday Nursery, and OCIC (Order of Christian Initiation of Children).

Duties include overseeing our ongoing Baptismal preparation program, CLOW program during the school year, ongoing OCIC program, and establishment of a Sunday Nursery during the Masses. This coordinator will work under the supervision of the Director of Elementary Religious Education to carry out all responsibilities. This coordinator will work closely with families to provide information and facilitate their participation in all these programs. The coordinator will oversee, train, and recruit catechists to run effective and engaging Baptism, CLOW, Nursery, and OCIC programs. The coordinator will work with clergy and other staff to organize and administer programming. He or she will make sure that sacramental guidelines are followed and that necessary documentation for sacraments is collected and recorded.

Requirements include basic knowledge of Catholic sacramental theology, in particular the sacraments of initiation. The coordinator should have experience in sacramental formation and demonstrate pastoral skills and deep respect for cultural diversity. The coordinator will have strong communication skills with adults and children alike and be successful working in a team setting. The position also requires the ability to work independently. Given the position and its responsibilities in our parish, the coordinator needs to be a Catholic in good standing and must be VIRTUS-trained or eligible for VIRTUS-training.

Please send application and CV with references to Lani Ulep at businessmanager@holyfamilymb.org.

HOLY FAMILY DAY SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Holy Family Day School is seeking a Preschool Teacher. Successful candidates will be compassionate, patient, and have an educational background and experience in Early Childhood Education. This is a part-time position Monday to Friday, when school is in session. The Teacher will instill a love of learning, prepare developmentally appropriate lessons and activities to promote the children's learning. They will also work cooperatively with the classroom assistant. If you are interested and qualified, please send a resume and Diocesan Application to Cindy Girard at dayschoolprincipal@holyfamilymb.org.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

"Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around."

~ Leo Buscaglia

Grief is the conflicting feelings caused by a change or an end in a familiar pattern or behavior; it is the normal and natural reaction to loss. Our Bereavement Support Group meets Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Library. If you, or someone you know, are grieving, please join us. These meetings will be confidential and held in a safe environment.

RCIA

RCIA is short for the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." RCIA is the normative process where those who are interested in the Catholic Church have a time of discernment about a possible call to full participation in the Catholic faith.

RCIA is open to:

- Those adults who have not been baptized and are spiritually looking
- Those adults who have been baptized in a recognized non-Catholic Christian tradition
- Those adults who were baptized Catholic but have not celebrated Eucharist and Communion

Participating in RCIA does not mean that you have to become Catholic, but it does help you discern as to whether God is calling you to join the Catholic Church.

Please contact the Parish Office at 757-481-5702 if you are interested in learning more.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You within my soul. Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

SUMMER PARISH OFFICE HOURS:

Please note that our Parish Office hours have changed for the rest of the summer.

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, the Parish Office will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. On Friday, the Parish Office will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. After Labor Day, we will go back to our regular hours.

ALZHEIMER'S CAREGIVER SUPPORT GROUP

will be held at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, 1396 Lynnhaven Parkway, on Thursday, August 24, at 1:30 p.m. in the Cenacle Room. The topic to be discussed is: "PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE," presented by trained facilitator member, John Termini, Ph.D. A support system is being developed with exchanging practical information on care giving challenges and possible solutions. Also talking through issues and ways of coping by sharing feelings, needs, and concerns. For further information or directions, please call Dottie at 757-486-7455. All Are Welcome!

"THIS IS MY BODY"

The book, "This is My Body, A Call to Eucharistic Revival," by Bishop Robert Barron, is available after Mass for a donation. It is an exceptional explanation of why we celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist as Catholics.

"CREATION CARE CORNER:"

Ecological Spirituality would have us become more attuned to the "natural world" around us. For instance, how much of this past day did you spend in touch with the "natural world?" At any point did you "consider the lilies of the field," an injunction Jesus probably meant not only as an instructive metaphor, but as an invitation to an embodied practice? For how many of the last 24 hours were you outdoors? We are often hemmed in by walls, computer screens, asphalt, and concrete, making it difficult to feel our connection to the "natural world." The fact is, we aren't separate from the "natural world" – we are part of it. How much consideration do we give it? Our constructed environments can block our vision of a greater horizon of connectedness so it seems that the "natural world" lies "apart from us."

The Passionist priest, Thomas Berry, who described himself as a "geologian," suggested that each of us has a "functional cosmology." Our cosmology is the story we believe about the history of the universe and our place in it; its functionality is the influence that story has on our lived experience. Our ecological convictions can easily fall out of alignment with the way we function day to day. Losing a collective sense of our oneness with the rest of creation results in irrevocable damage to our planet. The Pope's 2015 encyclical, Laudato Si', reiterates the Catholic tradition, from St. Francis of Assisi to the contemporary magisterium, through an ecological spiritual lens. While remaining Catholic, we can switch out a hierarchical image of God for a less dualistic and more immanent understanding of God present throughout, and sustaining, the whole web of life. We would do ourselves a huge favor if we made the time to thoughtfully read, even re-read, this remarkable encyclical.

Eco-spirituality invites us to radical transformation insofar as it demands that we learn from the Earth and not simply maintain our position of patriarchal dominance in "protecting" it. There is no limit to what the Earth and its varied species, metaphors, and symbols can teach us about not only the beauty of mountains and forests, but life itself, death itself, materiality. Our paradigm shift could be: a decentering of Christocentric hierarchies in favor of a radical belief that every person, regardless of religion, is already filled with the Spirit of God.

A vibrant eco-spirituality allows our expanded consciousness to see the truth of every created being's fundamental equality as "imago Dei" (image of God), to see from many experiential sources beyond human intellectual and ecclesiastical dictums.

This article is a brief account and adaptation of Nicholas Collura's, "Revise a Self-Centered Spirituality With This Daily Ecological Examen," published in earthbeat.org on July 11, 2023.
