CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

"Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around."
~ Leo Buscaglia

Grief is the conflicting feelings caused by a change or an end in a familiar pattern or behavior; it is the normal and natural reaction to loss. Our Bereavement Support Group meets Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Library. If you or someone you know is grieving, please join us. These meetings will be confidential and held in a safe environment.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You within my soul. Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

"THIS IS MY BODY"

The book, "This is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival," by Bishop Robert Barron, is available after Mass for a donation. It is an exceptional explanation of why we celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist as Catholics.

RCIA

RCIA is short for the “Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.” RCIA is the normative process where those who are interested in the Catholic Church have a time of discernment about a possible call to full participation in the Catholic faith.

RCIA is open to:

- Those adults who have not been baptized and are spiritually looking
- Those adults who have been baptized in a recognized non-Catholic Christian tradition
- Those adults who were baptized Catholic but have not celebrated Eucharist and Communion

Participating in RCIA does not mean that you have to become Catholic, but it does help you discern as to whether God is calling you to join the Catholic Church.

Please contact the Parish Office at 757-481-5702 if you are interested in learning more.

PARISH DIRECTORIES HAVE FINALLY ARRIVED!!

“CREATION CARE CORNER:”

One of the biggest environmental problems today is outdoor air pollution. Data from the World Health Organization shows that an estimated 4.2 to 7 million people die from air pollution worldwide every year and that 9 out of 10 people breathe air that contains high levels of pollutants. For instance, in Africa 258,000 people died as a result of outdoor air pollution in 2017, up from 164,000 in 1990, according to UNICEF.

Causes of air pollution mostly come from industrial sources and motor vehicles, as well as emissions from the burning of biomass and also poor air quality due to dust storms.

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, attention has been placed on the role that air pollution gases have in transporting the virus molecules. Preliminary studies have identified a positive correlation between COVID-19 related mortalities and air pollution. There is also a plausible association of airborne particles assisting the viral spread. This could have contributed to the high death toll in China, where air quality is notoriously poor, although more definitive studies must be conducted before such a conclusion can be drawn.

One of the best ways to increase our impact on air pollution is to join an environmental organization like the Sierra Club, the Chesapeake Climate Action Network, the email, Earth.org, or the group in Lambert’s Point in Norfolk, who are taking a stand against the coal ash from the loading/unloading ships. People working together can have more impact than individuals.

This article (with the exception of the final paragraph, which is an adaptation) was written by Deena Robinson on June 24, 2023 in Earth.org, entitled, “15 Biggest Environmental Problems of 2023.”
