CREATION CARE CORNER AIR POLLUTION – SECOND OF TWO ARTICLES

None of the World's 100 Biggest Cities are able to meet the World's Health Organization's (WHO) Updated Guidelines.

One of the more recent facts about air pollution: the WHO issued new stringent guidelines on air pollution in September, 2021, following new research showing that fine particulate matter is more harmful than previously thought where an estimated 8.7 million people a year die early due to breathing air from coal, oil, and gas burning. This accounts for 20% of global deaths. To persuade countries to ramp up efforts to improve air quality, WHO's new acceptance limit for PM2.5 has been slashed by half while nitrogen dioxide, produced mainly from diesel engines, is lowered by 75%.

Based on these new guidelines, no major city is able to meet them, according to an analysis by Greenpeace, (an active organization for the environment). The WHO says that if the world collectively reduced its air pollution levels to within the new limits, nearly 80% of air pollution-related deaths could be prevented.

Air Pollution contributed to the spread of COVID-19

A recent preliminary study from Harvard University found a positive correlation between COVID-19 related mortalities and air pollution, adding that there is a plausible association of airborne particles assisting the viral spread.

This article was adapted from the article, "10 Facts About Air Pollution That'll Take Your Breath Away," written by Olivia Lai and published on Earth.org on December 1, 2023.

RCIA

RCIA is short for the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." RCIA is the normative process where those who are interested in the Catholic Church have a time of discernment about a possible call to full participation in the Catholic faith.

RCIA is open to:

- Those adults who have not been Baptized and are spiritually looking
- Those adults who have been Baptized in a recognized non-Catholic Christian tradition
- Those adults who were Baptized Catholic but have not celebrated Eucharist and Communion

Participating in RCIA does not mean that you have to become Catholic, but it does help you discern as to whether God is calling you to join the Catholic Church.

Please contact the Parish Office at 757-481-5702 if you are interested in learning more.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN THE TEAM OF EXTRAORDINARY COMMUNION MINISTERS!

Each week as we come forward to receive the Eucharist, we say, "Amen!" to the person who offers us the Consecrated Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. "The Body of Christ, The Blood of Christ!" is what we hear; and what we believe, we receive.

You can join the team of Communion Ministers who help bring this important Sacrament to our "Holy Family" family! Please email Laurie Powers at PAL@holyfamilyvb.org to express your interest in this essential ministry.

UPCOMING BAPTISM DATES

Baptisms are normally scheduled during weekend Masses on set dates.

January 13/14, 2024

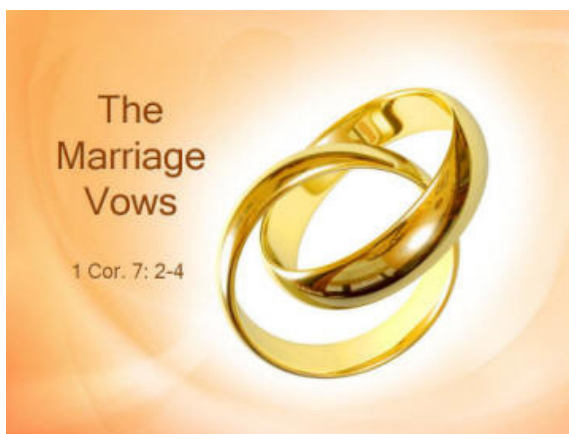

April 27/28, 2024

June 1/2, 2024

Sacramental preparation consists of meeting with the Baptism Coordinator, completing an online Baptism program, and attending an in-person session.

To request Baptism, please go to the parish website. Under the "Our Faith" tab, click "The Sacraments" and then click "Baptism." There, you will find information about Baptism, as well as the Baptism Request Form: <https://www.holyfamilyvb.org/baptism-request-form>.

Once your Baptism Request Form is received, the Baptism Coordinator will contact you to schedule an appointment to meet with her and plan the Baptism! Expectant parents are encouraged to reach out around the sixth month of pregnancy, but the unbaptized of all ages are welcome! Feel free to contact Michelle De Rubertis directly with any questions at 757-937-6712 or michelle@holyfamilyvb.org.

THE PRINCIPLES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. Over the next seven weeks in the bulletin, we will highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching.

RIGHTS OF WORKERS

"Every individual, precisely by reason of the mystery of the word of God who was made flesh (cf. John 1:14) is entrusted to the maternal care of the Church. Therefore, every threat to human dignity and life must necessarily be felt in the Church's very heart; it cannot but affect her at the core of her faith in the Redemptive Incarnation of the Son of God, and engage her in her mission of proclaiming the Gospel of life in the entire world and to every creature. (cf. Mark 16:15)

Pope Paul VI received the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in Rome on September 18, 1964

The American civil rights leader said, "The Pope made it palpably clear that he is a friend of the Negro people, and asked me to tell the American Negro that he is committed to the cause of civil rights in the United States. Quoting the Pontiff as advocating nonviolent methods in the struggle for Negro rights, Dr. King said he was deeply encouraged by his meeting with Pope Paul. Dr. King, a Baptist minister, said he believed that the United States civil rights movement had received "the endorsement of the most influential religious leader in the world and the head of the largest church in Christendom." Happy MLK Day.
