SHARING OUR GIFTS

Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

Don't forget to pick up your 2018 envelopes! They are in the Family Life Center. Also, if you need to update your registration, receive envelopes, or would like to register at the parish, there are forms available. Please help us update our database! Once you have filled out your change or request form, envelopes will be available for you to pick up the following week! THANK YOU!

RECTORY UPDATE!
What a faithful God we serve! The rectory is built, and not a penny is owed! How blessed is our St. Anne's community to have come together to provide a shelter for our shepherd as he tends to the flock he has been sent.

During the building of the new rectory, we have been paying down debt on the Family Life Center, evangelized to our youth, continued to feed the hungry, weathered storms, experienced vandalism in our sanctuary, and despite the setbacks, we managed to complete the task.

This past weekend, our new Bishop was here to visit and meet our St. Anne's family, share in Mass, the dedication of our new monument for the unborn, enjoy fellowship and witness the faithfulness of providing a new rectory for Fr. George, and all who will follow him.

The saints were not immuned to the distractions and evil in the world, and neither are we. We are all called to be saints however. During this Thanksgiving week, let us count our blessings, have a servants heart, and be a saint to someone! THANK YOU AGAIN to all who have prayed, donated, supported and been part of making not only the rectory a reality, but THANK YOU for making St. Anne's a parish to be proud of.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT INFORMATION

Educational Material on the Danger of Abuse - The overwhelming majority of our clergy and lay leaders are hardworking individuals who are dedicated to serving the people of God in our parishes and schools. All of us together are responsible for making sure that all of our ministries are as safe as possible for our children and vulnerable adults. Each of us has a responsibility to educate ourselves about the real danger of abuse. For help with online courses and other safety matters, please contact the Diocese Office of Safe Environment at 850-435-3570.

Victims of Abuse - The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators who are experienced and trained counselors and are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon or other church personnel. Victim Assistance Coordinator: Pensacola/Fort Walton Beach area: Dr. Louis M. Makarowski, Ph.D., P.A.; 850-477-7181. Coordinadores Para Asistencia A Victimas: Deacon Santiago Molina; Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee; 850-435-3536. Diocesan Abuse Hotline: 850-435-3536.

Sacred Relics of The Saints: Treasures of The Church

St. Anne Catholic Church (Bellview) presents a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Sunday December 10 at 2:00 pm.

Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with his very special ministry to teach about these holy objects. He will bring with him over 150 relics, some as old as 2000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Anne, St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. In addition, there will also be present a portion of the veil of Our Lady, as well as one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. In the Church's history many miracles and healings have been worked in the presence of relics, and many have been healed through this ministry. Please do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.
