Sacred Heart-St Louis Parish is a Catholic community of Christian believers devoted to the Holy Eucharist. We strive to build God's Kingdom by inviting all to faith formation, Sacred Liturgy, Evangelization and outreach.

La Parroquía Sagrado Corazón-San Luís es una comunidad Católica de creyentes Cristianos devotos a la Santa Eucaristía. Nos esforzamos para construir el Reino de Dios al invitar a todos a la formación de fe, a la Liturgia Sagrada, a la Evangelización y a la ayuda de la comunidad entera.

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 Wisdom 12:13, 16-19, Romans 8:26-27
 Matthew 13:24-43 or 13:24-30
Brief Reflection: God is patient and kind. Growing in faith is like striving to grow as wheat in a field mixed with weeds. We are faced with temptations, we do not pray as we ought, we are weak and in need of forgiveness. But God is just and kind; he judges with leniency, sends his Spirit to our aid, lovingly nurtures us, and patiently awaits our growth.

Prayer Intentions
 Let us pray for those who are sick in our community. Remember these parishioners and friends of the Parish in your prayers:
Lisa Juhring's mom and dad
Karl Starr (healing)
+Pablo Jaramillo and family
+Ed Bashaw and family
Gary Clark
+Marcelina Rojas de Chávez and family
 May you find consolation in knowing that you are thought of and prayed for in this time of need.

Archbishop's Catholic Appeal Update for the week ending May 17. The total pledged from Sacred Heart–St. Louis is $7,223 which is 41.1% of the goal of $17,570.45.

The parable of the “Wheat and the Weeds,” which only appears in the Gospel of Matthew, can be troubling. In essence, Jesus tells the story of a farmer whose crop of wheat is attacked by an enemy who sows the seeds of weeds along with the grains of wheat. Once the violent act was done, there was no going back. The wheat and the weeds had to be allowed to grow together. It would only be at the time of the harvest that the separation would finally take place, and the weeds would be burned up. Reflecting on this story, Maryknoll Fr. Ken Tesing, an American missionary priest who spent decades serving in East Africa, recalled this conversation with his brother during one of his visits home:
As farmers always do, we went out to look at the fields and crops. My brother asked me, “Look, do you recognize those weeds?” I replied, “No, I don’t think I have ever seen them before; how did they get into your fields?” He said, “Some years ago, herbicides were developed; the weeds and grasses we struggled with in the crops when we were growing up have all been eliminated. All these seeds were just lying dormant in the ground; they could not compete earlier with the dominant weeds and now they have sprouted and come forth.” We talked about this.
My brother said farming is like life; there will always be challenges, always be differences. We need to be patient and tolerant, to recognize the problems, the evil amid the good, and find ways to work with it and around it.
 This simple, practical explanation by an observant farmer is ultimately what Jesus is about: humility, mercy and acceptance. This parable isn’t concerned with backstory or trying to understand why the weeds were sown in the first place. Instead, it focuses on the response of the landowner. And so, when the slaves suggest uprooting the weeds, the landowner refuses: pulling up the weeds might uproot the wheat. At first sight, this seems like a reckless decision. After all, won’t the weeds be absorbing valuable nutrients and water from the soil — the very resources needed to make the wheat flourish? However, these weren’t Jesus’ concerns; Jesus was talking about the mercy of God. The Parable of the Weeds and the Wheat is a story about God’s mercy and a reminder that God gifts us with the time and space that allow for conversion and renewal so we can experience reconciliation, healing and growth. The parable also stands as a reminder that each of us is called to extend mercy to those around us, and to recognize that we, ourselves, also stand in need of mercy. And so, we are asked to show the farmer’s humility, mercy, and acceptance for those around us. But mercy is a difficult topic in our politically charged climate, when many see mercy (and compassion) simply as letting someone “off the hook.”

Haz lo que Tiene que necesite hacer

Recientemente, un amigo me confió que, aunque rezaba con frecuencia todos los días y estaba muy involucrado en su parroquia, no percibía mucho fruto proveniente de ello y se sentía insatisfecho. Le aseguré que no estaba solo. Le conté acerca de un pastor mío, ya fallecido, que había hablado frecuentemente sobre estar en este tipo de situación. Incluso como sacerdote, el sabía muy bien cómo nosotros podemos sentir que simplemente la estamos pasando y haciendo lo de siempre. Es precisamente en esos momentos que seguir orando y practicar una buena corresponsabilidad es lo más importante, porque sería más fácil simplemente tomar un descanso y arriesgarse a no volver nunca más. Le gustaba decir: "Haz el simulacro," es decir, haz lo que tienes que hacer.

Todos estamos llamados a ser discípulos maduros que respondan al llamado de Jesucristo sin importar el costo. No podemos elegir cuándo y dónde vendrá el llamado. No podemos programar nuestra corresponsabilidad de una manera que siempre nos resulte más conveniente. Incluso cuando los frutos de nuestros fieles esfuerzos nos parecen ocultos, mantenemos la promesa de que nunca estamos llamados a darnos por nada. Dios está trabajando a través de nosotros y en nosotros. No importa cuán seca parezca la tierra, las semillas se están plantando para producir una cosecha mayor de lo que podemos imaginar. ¡Mantente fuerte y haz el simulacro! — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sabiduría 12:13, 16-19, Romanos 8:26-27

Mateo 13:24-43 o 13:24-30

Breve Reflexion: Dios es paciente y amable.

Creer en la fe es como esforzarse para crecer como trigo en un campo mezclado con malas hierbas. Nos enfrentamos a tentaciones, no rezamos como deberíamos, somos débiles y necesitamos perdón. Pero Dios es justo y amoroso; juzga con indulgencia, envía su Espíritu para ayudarnos, nos alimenta con amor y espera pacientemente nuestro crecimiento.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Grace and sin are found together. As much as our hearts long for union with God, there is always that part of us that resists. As much as I wholeheartedly believe in God, there is a dimension of disbelief with which I also wrestle. Even though we may seek purity and integrity in all of our thoughts, words, and deeds, there is also the path toward weakness and sin that we find ourselves traversing. Just as weeds can easily overtake the best of gardens, so too can weakness and sin overtake and overwhelm a person. The call is to realize the power the weeds of sin have to choke us off from God's presence. While God allows the wheat and the weeds to exist together, we must keep our eyes fixed on God's mercy and forgiveness and resist the death that comes from giving way to sin and evil. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds. For now, we must be vigilant and regularly seek the assistance of the Master Gardener.

MORE WAYS TO SERVE OUR LORD: If you are feeling a little nudge or calling to serve at the Lord's table, please call the office. All the ministries could use a few more hands especially at the 9:30 am Mass and as altar servers!

IF YOU ARE NEW TO THE PARISH AND HAVE NOT SIGNED UP TO BE AN ACTIVE CLEANER, call Marianne at 503-508-0451 to become a cheerful cleaner. As parishioners, we take pride in keeping the Lord's House a clean and peaceful place of worship. We cannot afford to hire staff to clean the church weekly, but for 2020 we rely on 24 teams of parishioners (men, women, and older children) to vacuum, dust, empty trash, vacuum the Adoration Chapel and clean the Chapel's glass doors every Friday or Saturday.

ASSUMPTION

of the blessed virgin Mary

Question: What lessons should I learn from the Assumption of Mary Saturday, August 15?

Answer: Growing in holiness is similar to training in a sport. We need someone to show us how we can live our faith well. Mary is a model of sanctity. She shows us how to be faithful to God's will, living each day with confidence in God's mercy and love. At the Nativity, in Jesus' public ministry, and at the Crucifixion, we see her steadfast trust. She allows the Lord to use her life to accomplish his plan for her and for all of us. In the Preface of the Mass for the Assumption of Mary, we pray: "For today the Virgin Mother of God was assumed into heaven as the beginning and image of your Church's coming to perfection and a sign of sure hope and comfort to your pilgrim people."

It is this image of holiness that we strive to imitate. In the office, at home, or in our community, we look for signs of God's grace that call us to an ever greater love of him and each other. A greater awareness of God is a sign of our conversion of heart that lives the lessons Mary teaches.
