Four Things to Celebrate on Corpus Christi

1. Corpus Christi is a celebration of the transforming power of Christ.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord (Corpus Christi) is the day set aside each year to reflect in a special way on the gift of the Eucharist. But, to use this celebration only as a time to focus our own individual engagement and devotion with the Christ who is present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—in the Eucharistic elements is to limit the scope of this Solemnity and the dynamic of the Eucharist itself.

2. This solemnity celebrates our communion with one another.

In the same way, in our sharing in the Eucharist, an act of communion, we are brought into the life of Christ and the Church and we are brought out of ourselves. We are raised up into the expansiveness of the Eucharist in a way that transcends any personal acts of devotion—we are given a share in the life of God which is by nature expansive and always oriented to others. We are reminded of this when, in the account of Jesus feeding the multitude with only a few fish and loaves, he gives the command: “You feed them!”

3. This is a feast of thanksgiving.

Our word “Eucharist” comes from the Greek word for “Thanksgiving.” And so, that’s what we do every time we come together for Mass—we offer a great prayer of thanks to God the Father for the gift of creation, for salvation, and for our place in the communion of saints. The traditions, Scripture readings, and prayers of Corpus Christi all invite us to show our gratitude for God’s gifts—especially the gift of Jesus who is truly present in the Eucharist—by joining together in communion with the Church.

4. The Corpus Christi procession is a reminder that we are to share the gift of the Eucharist with the world.

The most beloved tradition associated with Corpus Christi is the Eucharistic procession. In the procession, we take the gift we have been given—the Eucharist and the new life we have been brought into by our act of communion—and we share that with others.

The procession isn’t intended to be a sort of holy “parade.” Instead it is a sign to the world of who we are and of what we believe, while we say to them, “This gift is so important, we want to share its blessings with you!” But this sharing isn’t limited to Corpus Christi. It also happens daily through the actions of the priest in the Mass and in our work to provide for the spiritual and physical needs of those who hunger for their “daily bread”—in what whatever way.

DEVOTION TO MARY

(Rose to Mary Ministry)

O MOST BLESSED MOTHER, heart of love, heart of mercy, ever listening, caring, consoling; hear our prayer. As your children, we implore your intercession with Jesus your Son. Receive with understanding and compassion the petitions we place before you today, especially for

Catherine Diller

We are comforted in knowing your heart is ever open to those who ask for your prayer. We trust to your gentle care and intercession those whom we love, who are sick, lonely, hurting or have gone before us. Help all of us, Holy Mother to bear our burdens in this life until we may share eternal life and peace with God forever. Amen.

The rose often symbolizes Mary, the Queen of Heaven. In relation to the Blessed mother it displays perfect love, form, fragrance, and color. For Mary the thorns on the rose remind us that Our Lord Jesus Christ wore a crown of thorns and gave up his blood for all humanity, as His Mother, Mary witnessed this suffering and death first hand at the foot of the cross.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the Diocese of Amarillo, I continue to be encouraged and edified by the pride you parishioners have in being Catholic Christians. We are truly blessed by the generosity of the faithful in their spiritual and nancial support of the work we do to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ into our families, neighborhoods, work places and our various communities. I am humbled and privileged to be your bishop.

The success of the United Catholic Appeal is crucial in carrying out the responsibilities we have, not just as individual parishes, but as the local church of the Diocese of Amarillo; - for the education and formation of seminarians and continued formation of priests, for parish assistance, for diocesan wide leadership, planning and coordination in Catholic Formation, catechesis, youth ministries, respect life, and many other areas. Together we are making progress in accomplishing our responsibility to love God and our neighbor.

Thank you for your participation and support as we strive to give ever greater witness to our love for Jesus Christ and our beautiful Catholic Faith. To pledge, please stop by the parish office to pick up a form or make a donation.

No gift is too small; every gift is a confession of faith to help bring Jesus to others. Each gift helps someone to recognize your love for them.

Please be assured of my continued prayers for you and your families.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Patrick J. Zurek, STL, DD
