When We Have No Prayer, No Wishes, No Strength Left

What happens when we are totally helpless? The Lord stops and does something for us ...

Today's readings can be found here. Read Fr. Epicoco's brief reflections on the daily Mass readings, Monday through Saturday, here. For Sunday Mass reading commentary from Fr. Rytel-Andrianik, see here.

"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Today's Gospel of Luke is explicit in telling us that the doctor of the Law who asks this question does so essentially to test Jesus. However, we're grateful anyway, because on account of this question Jesus gave us the parable of the Good Samaritan. In fact, what Jesus really wants to say is very simple: We experience eternal life when we experience compassion.

The story he tells is built on the deafening silence of the person who should actually be the protagonist, namely the unfortunate man who is robbed and left half-dead on the ground. Throughout the story, this man does not say a single word. He doesn't even ask for help, doesn't give thanks, doesn't really do anything. This is the condition in which we can come to find ourselves at certain times in life when we're so tried by events that we have no prayers, no explicit wishes, and no strength left whatsoever.

What happens when we are totally helpless? The Lord stops and does something for us even though we don't have even the faith or strength to ask Him. We are loved beyond our ability to believe in this love.

But Jesus also wants to add another teaching, a consequence of the disarming gratuitousness with which we are loved: When you realize that you've been loved in this way, then don't remain the same. Spread with your life the love you have received! Behave as God does, loving with compassion and gratuitousness those you meet in life—especially those whom you seem to meet totally by chance upon the road of your existence.

DEVOTION TO MARY

(Rose to Mary Ministry)

O MOST BLESSED MOTHER, hear t of love, heart of mercy, ever listening, caring, consoling; hear our prayer. As your children, we implore your intercession with Jesus your Son. Receive with understanding and compassion the petitions we place before you today, especially for

Westin Rollin

We are comforted in knowing your heart is ever open to those who ask for your prayer. We trust to your gentle care and intercession those whom we love, who are sick, lonely, hurting or have gone before us. Help all of us, Holy Mother to bear our burdens in this life until we may share eternal life and peace with God forever. Amen.

The rose often symbolizes Mary, the Queen of Heaven. In relation to the blessed Mother it displays perfect love, form, fragrance, and color. For Mary the thorns on the rose remind us that Our Lord Jesus Christ wore a crown of thorns and gave up His blood for all humanity, as His Mother, Mary witnessed this suffering and death first hand at the foot of the cross.
