Pope in Canada: 'Jesus leads us from failure to hope and healing'

Pope Francis celebrates Mass at the Shine of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré in eastern Canada, near Quebec, and recalls that Jesus always walks with us to help us move beyond our failures toward hope in God.

At the start of the fifth day of his Apostolic Journey to Canada, Pope Francis presided over Mass in the National Shrine of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré, east of Quebec. The Pope traveled by car to the oldest pilgrimage site in North America, which was first built in 1658 to house a miraculous statue of Jesus' grandmother.

In his homily, Pope Francis reflected on the conclusion of Luke's Gospel, which recounts the journey of the disciples to Emmaus and their encounter with Jesus, whom they did not initially recognize.

The Pope said the disciples' experience began with their distress and sadness at the apparent failure of Jesus' plan but ended with the birth of a new hope, after Jesus accompanied them as a fellow traveler.

"Whenever our failures lead to an encounter with the Lord, life and hope are reborn and we are able to be reconciled: with ourselves, with our brothers and sisters, and with God."

Like the disciples, we too can experience failure in our own spiritual journey when our plans fall through, when we give up on our high ideals due to our own inadequacies, or when we feel crushed by our sins. Pope Francis said the Church community experiences similar setbacks when faced with "the scandal of evil and the violence that led to Calvary."

The temptation in such moments of doubt and failure is to flee and seek refuge in grief and remorse. However, said Pope Francis, the Gospel teaches us that Jesus comes to walk by our side at precisely those moments of failure and teaches us to read events in a new light. He noted that the Basilica of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré has been rebuilt three times, once after a devastating fire. Yet, the faithful of the area kept dreaming and set out again "with courage and creativity."

Jesus, said Pope Francis, opens our eyes to the reality behind our perceived failures by breaking the bread and setting us back on the right path.

"What are we to do, as we endure spiritual and material trials, as we seek the path to a more just and fraternal society, as we strive to recover from our disappointments and weariness, as we hope to be healed of past wounds and to be reconciled with God and with one another?"

The answer lies in Jesus Himself, said the Pope, since He always comes to us to "show us the way to healing and reconciliation."

ADDITIONAL PARISH NEWS AND MORE!

Sign your children up for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd! Now is the time for parents of both parishes to sign up your 3- to 6-year-old children for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, which will begin in mid-September. The program will be offered on Monday evenings and Thursday mornings upstairs at Schroeder Hall. Cost is $50 per child or $75 per family, with scholarships readily available. Class size is limited, so please register soon. To register, contact Christine in the office at 309-788-3322 or 309-794-0660 or email ricatholicoffice@gmail.com. If you have any questions or would like to help, please call or text Maggie Schoonmaker at 309-738-1104 or email stjo3@icloud.com.

What is Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) all about? CGS provides an environment for our 3- to 6- year-olds to encounter the beauty of God in a learning space (referred to as an atrium) prepared just for them. Each session includes hands-on lessons on the Mass, scripture and sacraments of the Catholic church. Children will be provided with a space to discover God through hands-on work, prayer and song. Each lesson is connected to a specific moment in scripture or Mass and is meant to bring them closer to the Good Shepherd. It is open to all families of St. Mary's and Sacred Heart.

Help build the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atriums: Thank you to everyone who adopted items from our wish list boards at each parish to help build a prayer and learning space for our young parishioners who will be attending Catechesis of the Good Shepherd! Depending on the size of items, they can be returned in the collection basket (please label envelope CGS), to the vestibule of either church, or to the parish office at Sacred Heart. If you didn't have a chance to select an item, please do so from the displays! Items are due back by Sunday, August 7. Questions or need more information? Please contact Maggie Schoonmaker at 309-738-1104.

There will be a Mass celebrated at the Calvary Cemetery Mausoleum Chapel on Saturday, August 6th, at 9:00 a.m. A Mass will be celebrated on the first Saturday of the month from July through October at Calvary Cemetery. This year marks the 25th year of this program, and offers a unique opportunity to worship at the cemetery and to offer our prayers for our deceased family and friends.

Visiting a loved one at Calvary Catholic Cemetery? Even with on-going, yearly maintenance, our roads have simply reached a critical point that necessitates their replacement. To achieve this we need the help of the community. With your help, we hope to replace the roads within the cemetery beginning this year. If you can donate to this much needed project please call Jared Vogele or a member of our staff at (309) 788-6197, or make an online contribution at www.calvarycemeteryri.com/roads. We also have naming opportunities available for gifts of $10,000 or more with new wayfinding signage in the cemetery. Thank you in advance for your consideration and generosity.

Additionally, we have 3-4 openings for cooks each month during the summer. Meals are served at the Rock Island Township Hall, and cooks are asked to prepare 35-40 meals. A supervisor is always on duty, and a member of the Evening Meal Committee is also present to assist.
