

Time and Talent Volunteering Opportunities for Home & School

At St. John the Baptist Catholic School, we value and need parental involvement. Please consider sharing your time and your talents at St. John's this year. Parents, grandparents, older siblings and friends of St. John's School, we welcome your involvement and need you. Please join us.

Please not that when becoming a chair you do not have to do things alone. You always have the boards support behind you. Please consider chairing an event – help our students. Thank You.

How, you might ask, can I get involved? Well, there are several opportunities. Please check all that you may be able to help with. As events occur, someone will contact you prior to the event and see how you can add value to the event. Thank you in advance for being involved in your child's education and our great school!
