Next Week's Second Collection

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/homemissions.

Website Changes

We will soon be combining our website with St. Mary's in Cambridge. This will allow parishioners to see Mass times and events for both parishes at one, convenient website. You will be able to access the site at stthomasvt.com or stmarysvt.org sometime this week!

Stewardship - April 16 & 17, 2022

Weekly Budgeted Goal:$ 2,730.77
Easter Collection:(incl. $370 On-Line Giving).....$ 3,113.00

Please give online at www.stthomasvt.com/donate or mail your contributions directly to the parish at PO Box 3, Underhill, VT 05490. Thank you for your generosity.

The Sacrament of Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated by our youth this Thursday at St. Joseph Cathedral and we have an adult member who will celebrate the sacrament on Sunday, June 5.

Just as Baptism gives new life, Eucharist nourishes life, and Reconciliation restores life when it is broken, Confirmation strengthens that life by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Confirmation is about strengthening what God has given, and continues to give, to his sons and daughters. Confirmation is not about coming of age. Reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation does not mark the end of formal religious education. We never outgrow a need for a deeper knowledge and appreciation of our faith. The Sacrament of Confirmation is not a rite of passage, nor a graduation from religion class, nor a ratification of a personal faith choice. Bishop Christopher Coyne has been lowering the age to receive the sacrament to stop this kind faulty understanding. Rather, it's all about what God is doing for his beloved daughters and sons. God is strengthening the divine life which he gave at Baptism, nourishing us in the Eucharist, and reconciling with us in Penance, so that the individual can better defend and witness to the faith through the gifts and workings of the Holy Spirit. There will be many situations where we are called upon to defend and witness to our faith.

In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Holy Spirit completes the grace of baptism and offers the newly confirmed strength as a true witness of Christ. Thus, the newly confirmed is "more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed." Thus, the Holy Spirit completes what was begun at baptism. Canon law states that anyone who is baptized and has the use of reason, is properly instructed, and disposed, and is able to renew their baptismal commitment, is able to be confirmed. The same code states that the proper age for reception of the sacrament is at the age of reason unless the episcopal conference decides differently.

Perhaps the requirement that one be "properly disposed" is the key to when the sacrament is received. Proper disposition refers to the recipient's willingness to cooperate with the gifts of the sacrament, which can happen at almost any age. But nowhere is the sacrament described as a ratification of the recipient's choice or decision about the faith. Rather, it is the gifts of the Spirit offered to give the recipient the courage and strength to witness and serve, two responsibilities implied in baptism, which are the grace and focus of the sacrament. The Sacrament of Confirmation helps a person remain faithful to his or her baptismal commitment to witness to Christ and to serve others. The gifts of the Holy Spirit associated with Confirmation are strengths (or virtues) that Christian living requires if it is to be fruitful and complete. Thus wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord, are divine aids to Christian living without which fulfilling one's baptismal calling would be impossible.

Religious Education 2021-2022:

Sacraments: Children in grade 2&3 will receive their First Holy Communion on May 7 here at St. Thomas, and our youth in grades 6&7 will receive their Confirmation on April 28 at St. Joseph Cathedral in Burlington. Please keep them all in your prayers.

Make faith formation a lifelong effort
Faith formation should not end at Confirmation

Religious Education Bottle Redemption:

Thank you to everyone who has donated bottles over the past year for St. Thomas Religious Education Program. To all those families who redeemed bottles, we appreciate your time and energy. Over $530 has been redeemed in the past year. It cannot be successful without either those who contribute bottles, or those who return them to the redemption center. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! We will shortly be starting a new volunteer list for those who are willing to help taking bottles back for redemption. Please think about volunteering to do that at least once this summer. Contact Laura Wells stthomasrel.ed@vermontcatholic.org

Yard Sale Donation Days:

The next two St. Thomas Donation Days are Tuesday, April 26th from 4:30-6:00 pm and Saturday April 30th from 8:30-11:30. We cannot accept clothing, wall fixtures, baby equipment, textbooks/encyclopedias, magazines, cassettes, VHS tapes, TVs, or computer equipment. We'd love to have housewares, small appliances, books, games, puzzles, linens, craft supplies, small furniture, tools, holiday decorations, toys, and sports equipment! Please donate large items closer to the June 24-26 sale and please do not leave donations on the rectory porch. Thanks in advance for your donations!

Flower sale for Rice

The Rice Parent Organization is having a Mother's Day Claussen's Flowers Fundraiser to raise money for activities and treats for teachers and students and we would love your support! If you would like to order flowers (annuals, perennials, herbs and hanging baskets). Please email Elke Rainville at: ganderainville@gmail.com or you can get an order form at the Rice front office. Orders are due by Wednesday, April 27th. The flowers will be delivered to RMHS during the week of May 2nd. Thanks for supporting the Rice Parent Organization!

Father Stu, Movie

"Sony Pictures will release the film, Father Stu, on April 13, 2022. It is encouraging that Mark Walberg's passion to make this film is coming to fruition and we appreciate the thoughtful and diligent work of the production team. Father Stu's Long dramatic conversion to Christ before becoming a priest led many people to Christ and the Catholic Faith. His courageous witness left a special legacy in the Diocese of Helena. Viewers should be warned that the film contains objectionable language, violence, and adult content. However it is our hope that the redemptive story of Fr. Stu's conversion will invite viewers to faith and strengthen believers. Bishop George Thomas, who ordained Fr. Stu to the priesthood, and Bishop Austin Vetter, the current Bishop of Helena agreed; Father Stu—raw and unfiltered, combative and grace-filled, witness to the truth that no one is ever beyond the reach of redemption." ~ Diocese of Helena

Way of the Light on FORMED

Way of Light: The Stations of the Resurrection, also known by the Latin name Via Lucis (Way of Light), are a form of Christian devotion, encouraging meditation upon the Resurrection of Jesus Christ and some of the Resurrection appearances and other episodes recorded in the New Testament.
