Reflections:

Luke 10:1-12... act, pray, proclaim, trust and move along!

The analogy of a "plentiful harvest" in this passage describes the vast need for evangelism and spiritual work. It highlights that many people are ready to receive the message of the Gospel, but there are few laborers to proclaim it. This emphasizes the importance of praying for more workers to be sent into the field to help spread the Gospel.

Jesus sends out disciples, emphasizing their mission to preach the Kingdom of God and heal the sick. He provides them with specific instructions: to take nothing with them except what is provided, trust in God's provision, and deliver a message of peace to each household, while also emphasizing that if their message is rejected, they should move on.

I love this passage as it highlights the opportunity and the need for spiritual workers. The harvest in this context refers to people who are ready to receive the Gospel and follow Christ. It's a call to action, urging us to actively participate in spreading the message and bringing people to faith.

But what stands out for me the most is, if a house rejects the disciples' message, the disciples are instructed to shake off the dust from their feet and move on. This is such a symbolic act of separation, acknowledging that some will not receive the message. Ask yourself, are you in the harvest, and are you being rejected by people? If so, it's ok, just never stop declaring your faith and sharing your testimony. Evangelizing is powerful and the harvest is plenty, so don't ever be disheartened by rejection... just move along!

Weekly Divine Mercy and Adoration

As a reminder of the importance of the Eucharist and the true presence of Jesus Christ we have an opportunity to sit quietly in the Divine Presence. As part of this adoration we recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet beginning this time of adoration at 3 p.m. in which we pray for the parishioners, the world, the sick, and other Intentions that are close to our hearts. Come join this gathering as a renewal of faith and an opportunity to visit our friend above all friends, Jesus.

Let Us Pray for Those in the Service

Almighty God, we stand before you asking for your divine mercy and protection. Embrace with your invincible armor our loved ones in all branches of the service. Give them courage and strength against all enemies both spiritual and physical and hasten their safe journey back to their homes.

Please remember the following service personnel in your prayers as they serve and protect our country:

L. Cpl. Aaron Marshall, Okinawa, USS Dwight D. Eisenhower, U.S. Army; L. Cpl. Troy Monteville, Stateside;
Capt. Jason Jordan, U.S. Army, So. Korea; U.S. Marine L. Cpl. Kevin James Sabin, Lejeune, NC;
