PRAYER FOR PARISH
SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

Lord God, You love us with an everlasting love, and You choose us to share Your love with others. We ask that You rekindle in our hearts a new spirit of faith, of prayer and of reconciliation. Inspire us to search out and find ways of bringing one another closer to You. We pray for all who form our parish community, that we remain faithful to Your teaching, that we remain steadfast in our prayer, both personal and communal, that together with You and the Holy Spirit, our parish may be renewed and transformed. All this we ask in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Please cut out and pray daily.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter, is also called Good Shepherd Sunday.

Consider this image: A shepherd is leading his sheep. If one is lost, he calls out to it, the sheep hears his voice and follows it back to the flock.

Now consider this: Jesus is the Good Shepherd and we are his flock. He calls out to us and we follow him. But why has he called us to follow him? Maybe it is a call for discipleship, a call for the Church to become a community of believers who are led and guided by Christ, to evoke a sense of care and protection as well as a shared sense of purpose and belonging among members of the Church.

“I am the good shepherd, says the Lord, I know my sheep, and mine know me.”

This Sunday we also celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, inviting the Church to publicly pray for and promote vocations in all its forms.

PLEASE MAINTAIN A RESPECTFUL SILENCE
BEFORE EACH MASS. PEOPLE AROUND YOU ARE TRYING TO PRAY. THANK YOU!

CONGRATULATIONS TO DEACON DON!

Bishop McManus recently named Deacon Don Co-Director of the Permanent Diaconate for the Diocese of Worcester, effective May 15th. The Bishop's choice of Deacon Don demonstrates the Bishop's respect for him and his leadership abilities. Deacon will still remain assigned to our parish and will continue his work among us. Ad multos annos!!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

DEAR FRIENDS,

I've always enjoyed reading from the Acts of the Apostles, which is St. Luke's religious history of the early Church. It is read publicly after Easter to Pentecost as the first reading at Mass.

Acts give us a portrait of the early Church that is raw, conflicted, complex, and filled with uncertainty. It reminds me of the world in which we live.

A theme running throughout the book is the perpetual co-existence of struggle and hope. We begin with a severe persecution in Jerusalem following Stephen's martyrdom and the scattering of the first Christians to neighboring cities and regions. We end, unexpectedly, with great joy in the city of Samaria as those scattered Christians spread a life-giving message.

From severe persecution to great joy, all in one brief account. How is that possible? It would be naïve to assume that Philip and the early apostles had simply moved on from Jerusalem and found happiness in more welcoming places. No, the trauma from witnessing the suffering and death of their friends and family members was surely still weighing on them. How is it that Philip's words and charitable works in Samaria, fraught as they must have been with palpable anguish and confusion, could bring about great joy in others?

There is an enduring lesson for us in such accounts. Christian joy is not the absence of pain but the transfiguration of it. Only a belief and worldview that truly gets it—that is, one that compassionately recognizes, comprehends, and accompanies the trauma found in so much of our common human experience—is capable of simultaneously finding great joy. We, like Philip, do not seek pain as a prerequisite for joy, but neither do we naïvely presume that one negates the other. Great joy can be found when we set out, as the early apostles did, on this journey to become one with the Lord.

Easter blessings!
Monsignor Pedone

SPONSOR/GODPARENT LETTERS AND CERTIFICATES

Often, I am asked to provide a letter indicating that a parishioner is qualified to serve as a godparent or a sponsor at a baptism outside of the parish or at a Confirmation. In order for me to provide this letter, or sign a letter/certificate from another parish, you must meet the following qualifications: you must be a registered member of this parish and attend Mass regularly; you must be a fully initiated Catholic, which means you have been baptized, received your First Communion and were confirmed in the Catholic Church; if married, your marriage must be a valid marriage recognized by the Catholic Church. Marriages before a Justice of the Peace or other civil official are not recognized by the Church as valid. Sometimes special circumstances arise, and I am happy to discuss these with you. Thank you for your understanding.

Monsignor Pedone

The Easter Season continues.....

We have just celebrated Easter, the greatest feast in the Christian calendar, for "if Christ is not risen, our faith is in vain." The Resurrection of Christ culminates in His Ascension into Heaven and the descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost, which inaugurates the mission of the Church to spread the Good News of salvation to all the world!

The Easter Season ends on Pentecost Sunday which falls on May 28 this year.

May is the Month of Our Blessed Mother

Strengthen your friendship with Mary, the patroness of our parish, by saying the rosary every day during the month of May. Also, visit our Rosary Garden behind our parish center, and say the rosary while you walk through the mysteries.

Prayer to Mary, Our Mother

Mary, our Mother, I come to you with my needs and beg you to help me.
I honor you as my Mother and helper and trust in your love for me.
Lead me on the path of virtue, and preserve me from every evil.
Let me enjoy your protection and walk in your love and peace.
Guide me closer to Jesus, who gave you to me to be my Mother.

What are we to do?

Discernment of our direction is not just a task for young adults. Throughout our lives, we're challenged to consider the course we're following and the consequences of our choices. The apostle Peter called his generation corrupt; in fact, it's a fair assessment of every generation that seeks personal profit at the expense of the common good. Our mutual vocation is to respond to God's call in every hour, with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength. Pray that you know the role you're called to play and have the courage and passion to live it out.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS; FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER; GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14a, 36-41; 1 Peter 2:20b-25; John 10:1-10 (49). "[Peter] was exhorting them, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.'"

Monday, May 01, 2023

In praise of those who do good work

Religious Brothers Day is celebrated annually on May 1, which is also the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker as well as International Workers Day (known as Labor Day in some countries). The common theme is that they honor the often low-profile work of keeping church, family, and society running. The men and women who take up these tasks deserve more than one day of thanks—even though they're usually the type who never expect it. Maybe you're blessed to be one of them, who humbly serves and sacrifices and asks for little in return. On this day, and every day, let our gratitude be shown and felt for all the workers who dedicate their lives to making our lives better.

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPH THE WORKER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:1-18; John 10:11-18 (279) or Genesis 1:26—2:3 or Colossians 3:14-15, 17, 23-24; Matthew 13:54-58 (559). "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

Tuesday, May 02, 2023

Everything everywhere all the time

Thank Saint Athanasius upon reciting the word "consubstantial"—which used to be "one in being with the Father"—the next time you say the Nicene Creed. Athanasius, as deacon, did the theological homework for his bishop, Saint Alexander I, at the Council of Nicea. Together they resisted Arianism. Prior to the council, the central idea of Arianism had been slowly gaining traction among church leaders: that Jesus wasn't God, wasn't co-equal and co-eternal with the Father as taught by the Christian doctrine of the Trinity. As Athanasius insisted of Jesus and the Incarnation, "there is no part of creation deprived of his presence; together with his Father, he fills everything, everywhere, at all times."

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "The Father and I are one."

Wednesday, May 03, 2023

What remains is the legacy

Today the church celebrates the feast of two of the 12 apostles, Philip and James, a peculiar pair of martyrs not otherwise associated with one another in Christian history or tradition. James (also called James the Less) is regarded as the first Bishop of Jerusalem, while Philip was said to have preached in Greece, Turkey, and Syria. The pairing of their feast days is related to their shared reliquary in the Church of the Twelve Apostles, following a secret move from the Roman Catacombs. Thereafter lost to history for some time, their relics were rediscovered in the church crypt in the 19th century. On this holy feast, let's all remember the sacrifices of the church's first teachers and model their lives of holiness and faith.

FEAST OF PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8; John 14:6-14 (561). "[Jesus] was raised on the third day . . . After that he appeared to James, then to all the Apostles."

Thursday, May 04, 2023

We are a people with a history

When asked to speak at a gathering of the Jewish community in the early days of the church, Paul gives a history lesson. He recounts the liberating activity of God throughout Jewish history and ties God's activity directly to the arrival of Jesus the Messiah and the opening of salvation to all humanity. Our God is the God of history, and our human stories—personal and collective—are part of a much larger historical project of salvation. Play your part in the drama.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "Fellow children of Israel and you others who are God-fearing, listen. The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors."

Friday, May 05, 2023

Witness this

Saints and martyrs are the shining lights when it comes to witnessing to Jesus the Christ, often giving their whole lives and their very lives to communicate God's great love. We too are called to be witnesses. "But I'm no saint!" one might protest. "I can't witness like that." You don't have to be! Pope Francis reminds us that "God guides history through the humble courage of those who pray, love, and forgive. There are so many hidden saints, saints who are next-door, hidden witnesses of life, who with little acts of love change history." Next time in prayer, ask God how you've been a hidden witness of God's great love.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283). "These are now his witnesses before the people. We ourselves are proclaiming this good news to you."

Saturday, May 06, 2023

Choose your destination

Can someone really be destined, or "predestined," for eternal life? According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, our destiny as beings created by God is eternal life. But because we are free, we can choose to opt out of that destiny. Just like the people invited to the wedding feast in the Lord's parable, we can decide not to come or simply fail to show up. Just so, when we choose to live in hate rather than love, in violence rather than peace, in punishment rather than forgiveness, we're choosing another destiny. The choice is ours to make.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:44-52; John 14:7-14 (284). "All who were destined for eternal life came to believe."
