
ALL SOULS

For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.

John 6:40

TODOS LOS DIFUNTOS

Sí, ésta es la decisión de mi Padre: toda persona que al contemplar al Hijo crea en él, tendrá vida eterna, y yo lo resucitaré en el último día.

Our Holy Father: In his own words

"If today we are remembering these brothers and sisters of ours who lived before us and are now in heaven, they are there because they were washed in the blood of Christ. That is our hope, and this hope does not disappoint. If we live our lives with the Lord, he will never disappoint us."
"God is the one who saves, he is the one who carries us like father -- at the end of our lives -- to that heaven where our beloved are."
"Before sunset today, each one of us can think of the sunset of our lives; Do we look forward to it with hope and with the joy of being welcomed by the Lord?"

– Pope Francis

From Fr. Pete:

On the Catholic Church's calendar, this day is called "Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed." Another common name for it is, "All Souls Day." It is a special day during which Christians offer prayers for departed loved ones, and those who have died without anyone to remember them. We pray that all the souls of the faithful departed are enjoying the peace and joy of Heaven.

Today, we remember in prayer – a dad, a mom, a grandma, a granddad, a son, a daughter, a grandson, a granddaughter, a brother, a sister, an uncle, an aunt, a best friend, a friend, a person who's name is familiar to us, a person who's name we have heard – we pray for all those who have entered their eternal rest. I pray for you as you remember your loved ones that are so dear to you and whose presence is very much missed today. Each of us has someone we are remembering is a very special way. In remembering, we are brought to tears of sadness but we also break a smile because of what we have been able to share with them; those precious moments that can never be taken away; those moments that we hold so dearly in our hearts.

Later today, many of us will go and visit the grave site of our loved ones. We will leave flowers, prayers and love. For a little while, as we stand there, the area is quiet, very still. When we get back into the car to leave, for a minute or so, we will not want to turn the ignition key. No matter how much time has passed, the feelings of sorrow, of loss, are just underneath the surface; ready to pop back into our consciousness.

This, however, I believe with all my heart and soul, that though separated by death, we are all still one in the Body of Christ. And as we offer prayers for their sakes, I know deep down, that they are offering prayers for our sake, and the sake of all our relatives. And I have the hope that there will be a day, when all of us will be reunited, and we will find ourselves enfolded in our Father's arms. It is "a hope" that I pray is in you and together, we continue journeying until we do reach that moment when we are all reunited and embracing one another as we once did here on earth.

May God's peace comfort each of you this day and may the Souls of all of our loved ones who have passed away now enjoy the eternal happiness of our Lord in heaven.

Have a Great Week!

- Fr. Pete

REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all our faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.

From Fr. Juan Fernando Gamez:

Conmemoración de todos los fieles difuntos

Hermanos y hermanas en el Señor.

En este día especial la Iglesia nos invita a celebrar la conmemoración de todos los fieles difuntos. Debemos recordar que la práctica de orar por los difuntos es muy antigua. El libro 2° de los Macabeos en el Antiguo Testamento dice:

Mandó Juan Macabeo ofrecer sacrificios por los muertos, para que quedaran libres de sus pecados"(2Mac. 12, 46); y siguiendo esta tradición, en los primeros días de la Cristiandad se escribían los nombres de los hermanos que habían partido en la "díptica", que es un conjunto formado por dos tablas plegables, con forma de libro, en las que la Iglesia primitiva acostumbraba a anotar en dos listas pareadas los nombres de los vivos y los muertos por quienes se había de orar.

Es importante para nuestra vida de fe el que podamos mantener esa relación espiritual con todos nuestros seres queridos que han partido para el encuentro con el Creador, ya que la esperanza cristiana nos manifiesta que la muerte no es el final, sino que es un paso último y necesario para poder participar en el banquete final de la salvación.

La mejor manera de recordar a nuestros seres queridos en esta conmemoración de los fieles difuntos es a través de la celebración de la eucaristía ya que en ella hacemos memoria del sacrificio de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, quien dando su vida en la cruz por nuestra salvación, nos abrió las puertas del reino de los cielos para que también nosotros participemos de su vida divina en la resurrección.

Pidamos al Padre para que en este día las almas de los fieles difuntos por la misericordia de Dios descansen en paz. Amén ! Feliz semana para todos!
