BULLETIN DEADLINE

Monday 1:30 p.m.

From: Fr. Pete

With just one week left to come to the end of the Church's liturgical calendar, (Year C), and about six weeks to draw the curtains of 2016, Holy Mother Church in her protective care encourages us to patiently hold on till the end. The weapons she places at our disposal to help us triumph include among others: Endurance and Hard Work! Endurance is one of the most difficult disciplines, but it is to the one who endures that the final victory comes. Therefore, we must not give up. Instead, we must continue to endure until we triumph over all the enemies and evil that afflicts us. The Church teaches us today that Christ will come to bring all that is evil to nothing. He continues to strengthen our ability to endure daily through the Eucharist.

The reading from the Prophet Malachi serves as an encouragement to us to continue our good work in patient righteousness and endurance. In other words, it teaches that to persist in good works till the end, one must endure all forms of trials and difficulties as the saints did because: "All these call for patience, endurance and faithfulness" (Rev 13, 10). Endurance moves a child of God to continue to work hard without looking back. It is endurance that helps us persevere in doing good at all times. It keeps us going when physical strength fails us and, it perpetuates our quest for righteousness.

In the gospel, Jesus warns us of the imminent tough times ahead. One of the most important things we must take hold of in this gospel is that none of our beautiful cities, road networks, automobiles, houses, clothes and, in fact anything man-made will endure forever. Even human beings will one day perish and be gone. However, with endurance in our sufferings and persecutions, we shall win ourselves immortality before Christ as he says to us today: "Your endurance will win you your lives." The Lord encourages us to persevere in righteousness and endure in hard work. Furthermore, in warning that in spite of the elegance of the temple that it will be destroyed, Jesus warns us not to hold on tenaciously to anything of this world to the detriment of forgetting God because the only things that will endure are faith, hope, and trust in God which are manifested through charity – the love of God, as well as the love of neighbor. So, rather than fix our gaze on the glory of this world, we must keep all our eyes on Jesus the author and finisher of our faith (Heb12, 2).

Finally, enduring spirit comes from God who knows what we go through all our life. It is a gift he bestows on those who love him in order to help them overcome the difficulties of life. This is why Paul tells us that "you are being strengthened with all powers according to His glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience…" (Col 1, 11). The situation we are in, in this present world, in our offices, our homes, schools, etc., might be very tough, it might even question our faith in Jesus Christ, yet if we endure, we shall have every course to smile at the end as Jesus assures us today: "Your endurance will win you your lives." As soldiers of Christ, what proves our capability is the extent to which we can endure for the sake of Christ. In light of this, Paul urges us once again: "endure hardship like us, like a good soldier of Christ" (2 Tim 2, 3), and Hebrew insists: "Endure hardship as discipline, God is treating you as a son" (Hebrews 12, 7). Like William Faulkner (1897–1962): "I believe that man will not merely endure. He will prevail. He is immortal, not because he alone among creatures has an inexhaustible voice, but because he has a soul, a spirit capable of compassion, sacrifice and endurance."

Peace be with you all!

From: Fr. Fernando

Días vendrán en que no quedará piedra sobre piedra…

El mensaje del Evangelio es claro, quien quiera resistir al mal permaneciendo fiel a Dios y al bien, ha de afrontar incomprensiones y a veces auténticas persecuciones. Si queremos seguir a Cristo con autenticidad debemos saber que encontraremos oposición y nos convertiremos, sin buscarlo, en signo de contradicción, muchas veces incluso en el seno de nuestras mismas familias, porque el amor a los padres, hermanos, parientes y amigos es sagrado, pero no debe anteponerse jamás al amor a Dios. ¡Cuánto nos debe alentar el ejemplo de los mártires! Basta repasar la historia de la Iglesia del siglo pasado. Esta puede resumirse como una etapa de sufrimientos y de persecuciones contra la Iglesia. El martirio de esos testigos de la fe se une a la pasión de Cristo. Su vida es como el grano de trigo que muere y da fruto. Su sangre es estímulo para nosotros y para toda la Iglesia. Nos enseñan que ningún sufrimiento es en vano, cuando se vive por amor a Cristo. Para permanecer siempre fieles en las persecuciones cotidianas del medio ambiente o de la mentalidad del mundo, necesitamos de la virtud de la fortaleza. Esta nos asegura la firmeza y la constancia en la búsqueda del bien aun en medio de las dificultades. Reafirma nuestra resolución de resistir a las tentaciones y de superar los obstáculos. La virtud de la fortaleza nos hace capaz de vencer el temor y de hacer frente a las pruebas y a las persecuciones. Esta virtud nos capacita para ir hasta la renuncia y el sacrificio de la propia vida por defender la causa de Cristo.

El cristiano ama la vida y todos los dones recibidos de Dios, pero es consciente de los bienes supremos. Así lo han comprendido los mártires de toda la historia de la Iglesia, esos hombres y mujeres que fueron capaces de dar su vida con tal de ser fieles a Cristo. Ellos sabían que la profesión pública de su fe en Dios era más importante que nada. Pero el amor a Dios y la reciedumbre de espíritu no se manifiestan solamente en los casos excepcionales. Todos los cristianos necesitamos ejercitarnos en la virtud de la fortaleza, por amor al Señor, en la vida ordinaria. Esta virtud nos ayuda a superar los obstáculos y, cuando no es posible hacerlo, nos brinda la capacidad de resistencia para soportar las dificultades.

Crezcamos todos los días en la fuerza de voluntad, en la perseverancia y en la tenacidad especialmente en la consecución de nuestros propósitos, esto nos permitirá ser fieles al Evangelio en toda circunstancia. Alimentemos también nuestra caridad, de manera que tengamos la disposición y prontitud para hacer cualquier sacrificio por Cristo.

Una bendecida semana para todos.

Prophecy is saying that there is something Truer, more beautiful, greater, of greater good to which we are all called.
