From: Fr. Pete

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman … so that we might receive adoption (Galatians 4:4-5).

Our mothers usually know what's best for us—and that's especially true of our mother Mary. So on a day when we celebrate her feast day and make New Year's resolutions, let's ask Mary to pray for us that we listen to her Son and see what he would want us to do. What is there in our lives that you want our Blessed Mother Mary to pray for throughout this new year?

Through baptism we have become sons and daughters of God. Most of us have already heard this truth, but does it sustain us in our daily lives? Has it become one of the central guiding principles of our lives? To answer that question, it may help to explore what it means to be a child of our heavenly Father.

First and foremost, being children of God means that we aren't orphans, left alone in the world to fend for ourselves. No, God loves and treasures us more than we can ever comprehend. He has called us his own, and he will never forsake us.

Second, being a child of God means that we carry the "family name." This is our identity. Not only does it define who we are, it also tells us what we can become as we learn to cooperate with God's grace. It even tells us that we can come to bear a resemblance to our heavenly Father because we are sharing in his very nature.

So while we are formulating our New Year's resolutions today, let us ask Mary to guide us. Each day of this coming year, make it a point to remind yourself of who you are, where you came from, and where you are going. Live as the son or daughter that you are. It will make your Mother very happy!

"Mary, pray for me throughout this year so that I can walk in the dignity that your Son has won for me!"

At the beginning of a new year, the Church invites us to contemplate Mary's divine maternity as an icon of peace… She believed in the words of the angel, conceived her Son and thus became the Mother of the Lord.

Through her, "yes", the fullness of time came about. The Gospel we have just heard tells us that the Virgin Mary "treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart" (Lk 2:19).
Pope Francis

From: Fr. Fernando

«María, por su parte, guardaba todas estas cosas y las meditaba en su corazón».

El pueblo de Israel bendecía a Dios e invocaba su nombre. Imploraba que le mostrara su rostro y le concediera la paz. Dios les bendecía y, al llegar la plenitud de los tiempos, Dios envió a su Hijo. Y envió a nuestros corazones su Espíritu para que clamemos con Él: «Abbá, Padre».

En este primer día del año, la Iglesia celebra a María como Madre de Dios. Y es precisamente para que nos fijemos en ella, en la madre de Jesús, nuestro Salvador.
Cuántas virtudes que debemos contemplar y hemos de imitar. Pero quisiera fijarme en una que nos enseña el Evangelio de hoy: «María, por su parte, guardaba todas estas cosas y las meditaba en su corazón». María nos enseña a meditar. Todo para ella era motivo de contemplación serena y suave, pero a la vez profunda y penetrante. Era la contemplación de su Hijo y de todo lo que le rodeaba.

Pongámonos un momento en su lugar y contemplemos con ella. Y como ella guardemos todas esas cosas en nuestro corazón. Un misterio, sí, un misterio maravilloso. Dios que se ha hecho uno de nosotros, un niño para que todos entremos en este Misterio como niños. Y vemos a los pastores que corren al encuentro de un niño, y porque son pastores, gente sencilla, ven que lo que les había anunciado el Ángel era cierto. Ahí estaba «envuelto en pañales y acostado en un pesebre». Y "volvían alabando y glorificando a Dios». Habían visto con los ojos, con el corazón, con todo su ser al Hijo de Dios. Habían visto, como podemos ver nosotros y como ve María, a Jesús. Ya nada seguirá igual, ya todo será diferente, ya todo será nuevo porque todo nace de nuevo con Jesús, todo se transforma en vida nueva, en alegría, en gozo.
Pongamos en este primer día del año todo lo que somos y todo lo que queremos ser, nuestros propósitos y anhelos, en manos de María, para que sea ella la que los presente a Jesús como una ofrenda agradable a Él y así nos conduzca con seguridad hacia Él para nuestro bien y el bien de todos los hombres.

Un Bendecido y Feliz Año Nuevo Para Todos!
