22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition."
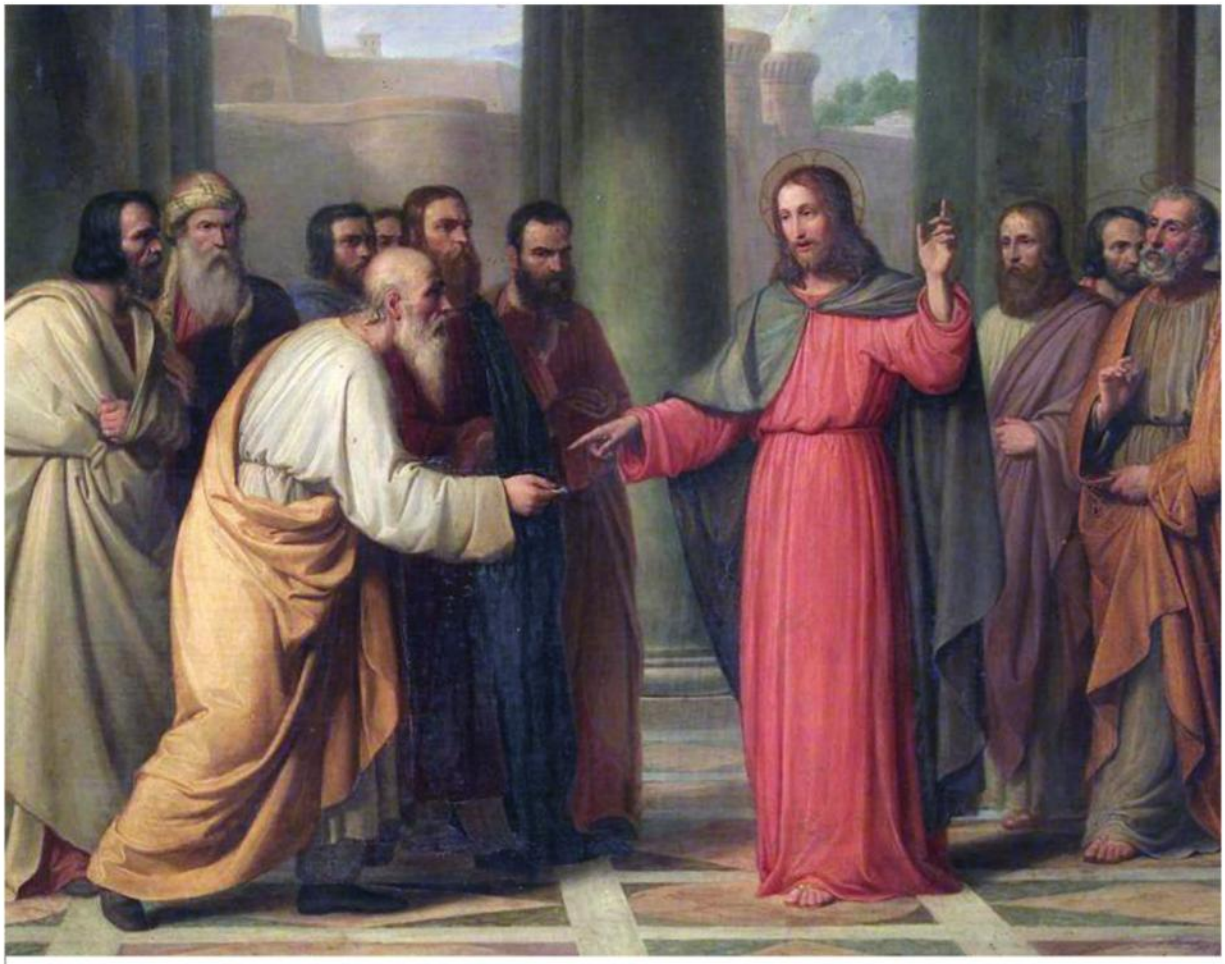
Mk 7:8



Ustedes dejan a un lado el mandamiento de Dios, para aferrarse a las tradiciones de los hombres".
Mc 7, 8

22° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

FR. CHRIS BECERRA

The following is a meditation based on the 28th chapter of the book of Job, which reminds us that we can grow in earthly knowledge and science, true wisdom and understanding resides in God alone.

The powers of mankind are both immense and confusing. We can mine for silver, discover hidden recesses of gold, and refine both. We take iron out of the earth, and smelt copper from its ore. We are capable of dispelling darkness, and we search out to the farthest point all that exists in the deepest darkness.

We can open shafts in valleys or windows into space, far away from where we live, in places unknown by travelers. Our explorers, machines and masters of commerce plumb precipitous caverns, whether above or below, without fear.

Here on earth we grow crops for our daily bread, yet beneath the surface there is molten fire. The stones themselves are the home of sapphires and gold dust. Along those paths, no bird of prey has ever explored. The falcon's eye has not seen it. The beasts have not trodden it, not even the lion!

Only man puts his hands to the flinty rock, and overturns mountains by their roots. He cuts channels through the rocks, and his eye sees every precious thing. He dams streams to a mere trickle, and every hidden thing he brings to light.

But where shall we find wisdom? Where do we locate understanding?

We do not know the way to wisdom. It does not seem to be found in the land of the living. If we explore the deep, the deep replies, "It is not in me", and the sea says the exact same thing.

Understanding cannot be purchased with gold; silver cannot be weighed as its price. It cannot be valued in precious onyx or sapphire. Gold cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewels. We need not even mention coral or crystal—the price of wisdom is beyond pearls! The finest topaz cannot compare with it; it cannot be valued even with the rarest of jewels set in gold.

How, then, do we come to wisdom? And again, where is the place of understanding? It is hidden from the eyes of all the living, concealed from the sharp-eyed birds of the air. Even death and the devil can say only, "We have heard a rumor of it!"

God alone understands the way to wisdom; He knows its place. He alone looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything under the heavens. When He gave to the wind its pressure and power, and meted out the waters to His own measure; when He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning and the thunder; then He saw it and declared it; he established it, and brought it to light.

And He declared it to us: "Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding."

HOLY VIRGIN OF GUADALUPE

QUEEN OF THE ANGELS AND MOTHER OF THE AMERICAS, PRAY FOR US
PRAY THE ROSARY

HOLY VIRGIN OF GUADALUPE

Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
As you did at the wedding in Cana.
Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our Nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.
We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
Keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MAIN ALTAR FLOWERS

IN LOVING MEMORY
VELMA S. GONZALEZ
BY HECTOR GONZALEZ
FAMILY

COVID-19 Prayer

Father of Boundless Mercy,
to show your love for all humanity,
you sent Your only begotten Son as our redeemer and healer.
Through Him we can place before you all we need,
and you will faithfully respond.
With steadfast confidence in this promise
we come before you during this COVID-19 global pandemic
and ask that you grant:
Strength and Courage
to all of us;
Healing
to those who are suffering due to the virus;
Hope
to those who are afraid and weary;
Comfort and Reassurance
to families whose loved ones are sick and suffering;
Peace and Consolation
to families whose loved ones have died from the virus;
Guidance and Protection
to doctors, nurses, researchers, and all medical professionals;
Eternal Life and the Fullness of Love to those who have died due to the virus and other ailments.
Together with Mary, Mother of the Church,
we call upon the intercession of Saint Joseph,
Hope of the Sick and Pillar of Families, to obtain for us the graces we need to be salt of the earth and light for the world in this time of darkness and doubt.
We place all these needs at the feet of your Divine Son,
Jesus Christ, who with the Holy Spirit lives and reigns with you forever and ever. Amen.
