From The Pastor's Desk

"Lord, will only a few people be saved?" God has redeemed us through Jesus, but we have a choice to accept or reject the invitation to heaven.

Today, the twenty-first Sunday in ordinary time, the word of God invites us not to worry about the number of persons destined for heaven but to stay focused on our journey of faith in hope. The word of God gives us a comforting and consoling message that all can make heaven. We are challenged to be sincere in all that we do because no one can deceive God.

Everyone is destined for salvation, but each person has got to make a choice for salvation. Yes, God has poured his grace into our lives. As daughters and sons of God we understand our God is generous, loving, merciful and just. We are called to proclaim this message with our words and deeds. Today, Jesus urges us to be sincere about our proclamation of God's Salvation and not take God's mercy for granted. For instance, one who proclaims God's love should love others unconditionally; they should strive to remove discrimination, hatred, resentment, revenge and the unwillingness to forgive from their lives. Proclaiming the good news to the whole world is not to drum fear into people that they are going to hell but rather encouraging them to make the right choices in life. Not being afraid helps us to reflect on our choices, it encourages us to humbly accept corrections and to keep on striving to love unconditionally in spite of our failures.

Heaven and hell are realities. God, our creator has destined us all for heaven but we have the freedom to choose where we want to be at the end of our lives.

Desde el Escritorio del Pastor

"Señor, ¿solo unas pocas personas se salvarán?" Dios nos ha redimido a través de Jesús, pero tenemos la opción de aceptar o rechazar la invitación al cielo.

Hoy, Vigésimo primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, la palabra de Dios nos invita a no preocuparnos por el número de personas destinadas al cielo, sino a mantenernos enfocados en nuestro camino de fe en la esperanza. La palabra de Dios nos da un mensaje reconfortante y consolador de que todos podemos hacer el cielo. Somos desafiados a ser sinceros en todo lo que hacemos porque nadie puede engañar a Dios.

Todo el mundo está destinado a la salvación, pero cada persona tiene que hacer una elección para la salvación. Sí, Dios ha derramado su gracia en nuestras vidas. Como hijas e hijos de Dios entendemos que nuestro Dios es generoso, amoroso, misericordioso y justo. Estamos llamados a proclamar este mensaje con nuestras palabras y obras. Hoy, Jesús nos insta a ser sinceros acerca de nuestra proclamación de la Salvación de Dios y a no dar por sentada la misericordia de Dios. Por ejemplo, quien proclama el amor de Dios debe amar a los demás incondicionalmente; deben esforzarse por eliminar de sus vidas la discriminación, el odio, el resentimiento, la venganza y la falta de voluntad para perdonar. Proclamar las buenas nuevas a todo el mundo no es infundir miedo en las personas de que van a ir al infierno, sino alentarlas a tomar las decisiones correctas en la vida. No tener miedo nos ayuda a reflexionar sobre nuestras elecciones, nos anima a aceptar con humildad las correcciones ya seguir esforzándonos por amar incondicionalmente a pesar de nuestros fracasos.

El cielo y el infierno son realidades. Dios, nuestro creador, nos ha destinado a todos al cielo, pero tenemos la libertad de elegir dónde queremos estar al final de nuestras vidas.

THE DIOCESE OF KIGOMA

Catholic Diocese of Kigoma is one of 35 dioceses in Tanzania. It is located in the rural western part of Tanzania in East Africa. The diocese has a population of 2.2 million of whom 509,000 are Catholics. Rt. Rev. Joseph R Mlola, the ordinary of the diocese has 66 diocesan priests, about 20 religious priests, religious nuns and brothers and 620 catechists who minister in parishes, outstations, and special ministries throughout the diocese.

The Diocese of Kigoma is very poor due to the low income of her people who earn their livelihood through traditional agriculture which is un-mechanized, small-scale, and relying on weather. Bad weather leads to many people not having food to sustain families throughout the year. Poor earning of our people affects their ability to support the various ministries in the diocese.

The Diocese of Kigoma makes the appeal to support:

1. Ministry to Orphans which comprises 1000 orphan children in two orphanages.
2. Ministry to the Refugees which comprises 300,000 refugees in three refugee camps located in the Diocese.
3. Ministry to the Seminarian Formation which comprises of 95 college level seminarians who study in different collage years for our diocese.

In her ministry, the diocese helps them have a sense of belonging by providing educational, emotional, spiritual, medical, nutritional, psychological and financial support etc.

LA DIÓCESIS DE KIGOMA

La Diócesis Católica de Kigoma es una de las 35 diócesis de Tanzania. Se encuentra en la parte occidental rural de Tanzania en el este de África. La diócesis tiene una población de 2,2 millones de los cuales 509.000 son católicos. Rev. Joseph R Mlola, el ordinario de la diócesis tiene 66 sacerdotes diocesanos, unos 20 sacerdotes religiosos, monjas y hermanos religiosos y 620 catequistas que ministran en parroquias, estaciones remotas y ministerios especiales en toda la diócesis.

La Diócesis de Kigoma es muy pobre debido a los bajos ingresos de su gente que se gana la vida a través de la agricultura tradicional que no está mecanizada, es de pequeña escala y depende del clima. El mal tiempo hace que muchas personas no tengan alimentos para mantener a sus familias durante todo el año. Los bajos ingresos de nuestra gente afectan su capacidad para apoyar los diversos ministerios de la diócesis.

La Diócesis de Kigoma hace un llamamiento para apoyar:

1. Ministerio a los Huérfanos: que abarca a 1000 niños huérfanos en dos orfanatos.
2. Ministerio a los Refugiados: que abarca a 300,000 refugiados en tres campamentos de refugios ubicados en la Diócesis.
3. Ministerio para la Formación de Seminaristas: que abarca a 95 seminaristas de nivel universitario que estudian en diferentes años de preparación para nuestra diócesis.

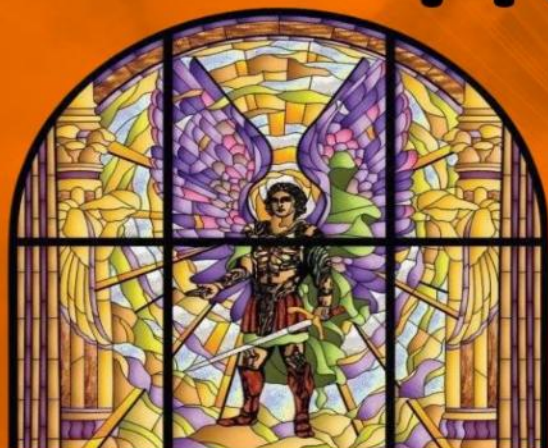

En su ministerio, la diócesis les ayuda a tener un sentido de pertenencia al brindar apoyo educativo, emocional, espiritual, médico, nutricional, psicológico y financiero, etc.
