From The Pastor's Desk

He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures at the breaking of the bread. Today, the third Sunday of Easter, the word of God assures us of the active presence of the risen Lord in our lives and at every liturgy. The word of God tells us how the experience of the Lord in every Eucharist can transform our lives and invites us to hold on tenaciously to our faith. We are challenged to always resist acting out of ignorance, to open our hearts to deepen our trust in God so that every experience that comes our way in life turns to our benefit and for God's glory.

Yes, when Jesus opens our eyes, even amidst difficult moments our life will always be a victorious and an exciting story. He opened the eyes of the two disciples on the way to Emmaus at the breaking of the bread and their negative experiences became a living witness of the power of his resurrection. He opened the eyes of Peter and this moved him from his denial to inviting others to let go of their ignorance and accept God's mercy. Jesus opened the eyes of his apostles and transformed their slowness to understand to recognize him as their advocate and one who never abandons.

As Easter people, our ability to witness the power of Jesus' resurrection helps us accomplish three things: firstly, we make others feel welcome in our community and help them to experience Jesus in us. Secondly, God's glory is revealed in our lives granting us strength to triumph in moments of difficulty and hopelessness. Thirdly, through sharing our stories and blessings, our community becomes a happy vibrant one with every member claiming their rights with corresponding obligations. May Jesus resurrected continue to transform our hope empowering us as witnesses of his peace and forgiveness, Amen.

Desde el Escritorio del Padre

Les abrió la mente para comprender las Escrituras al partir el pan. Hoy, tercer domingo de Pascua, la palabra de Dios nos asegura la presencia activa del Señor resucitado en nuestras vidas y en cada liturgia. La palabra de Dios nos dice cómo la experiencia del Señor en cada Eucaristía puede transformar nuestras vidas y nos invita a aferrarnos tenazmente a nuestra fe. Tenemos el desafío de resistirnos siempre a actuar por ignorancia, de abrir nuestro corazón para profundizar nuestra confianza en Dios, de modo que cada experiencia que se nos presente en la vida se convierta en nuestro beneficio y para la gloria de Dios.

Sí, cuando Jesús abre nuestros ojos, incluso en medio de los momentos difíciles nuestra vida será siempre una historia victoriosa y apasionante. Abrió los ojos de los dos discípulos en el camino a Emaús al partir el pan y sus experiencias negativas se convirtieron en testimonio vivo del poder de su resurrección. Abrió los ojos de Pedro y esto lo llevó de su negación a invitar a otros a dejar atrás su ignorancia y aceptar la misericordia de Dios. Jesús abrió los ojos de sus apóstoles y transformó su lentitud para comprender para reconocerlo como su abogado y que nunca abandona.

Como personas de Pascua, nuestra capacidad de presenciar el poder de la resurrección de Jesús nos ayuda a lograr tres cosas: en primer lugar, hacemos que otros se sientan bienvenidos en nuestra comunidad y les ayudamos a experimentar a Jesús en nosotros. En segundo lugar, la gloria de Dios se revela en nuestras vidas dándonos fuerza para triunfar en momentos de dificultad y desesperación. En tercer lugar, al compartir nuestras historias y bendiciones, nuestra comunidad se vuelve feliz y vibrante y cada miembro reclama sus derechos con las obligaciones correspondientes. Que Jesús resucitado siga transformando nuestra esperanza empoderándonos como testigos de su paz y perdón, Amén.

ENCOUNTER WITH GOD'S CALL

Encounter With God's Call at Conception Seminary College is an opportunity to discern the call to priesthood and learn about college seminary life. Throughout the weekend, we pray, meet, and relax with seminarians and other young men discerning the priesthood.
Together we all seek to listen for God's voice and our call.

Spring 2024: April 19-22

(660) 944-2987 | ewgc@conception.edu

Since I sometimes have trouble explaining what seminary is like to people, I usually just invite them to visit. Encounter With God's Call reminds me of the words of Jesus in the first chapter of St. John's gospel. After John the Baptist directs the two disciples to Jesus, they ask him, "Where are you staying?" And Jesus simply replies, "Come and see."

— Eric Wachira
Diocese of Kansas City – St. Joseph

When I arrived at Conception Seminary College for my first Encounter with God's Call retreat in the fall of 2022, I instantly felt a sense of peace being here. The best part was the warm welcome I received from all of the seminarians, monks, and staff. I was able to have a truly prayerful discernment experience and could see myself being a seminarian.

— Kaleb Chacon
Diocese of San Angelo

The Encounter With God's Call weekend was the much-needed opportunity I was seeking to answer Jesus' invitation to "Come and see." I knew I needed to take a step forward in discerning the priesthood, and this was the best step I could have taken. The weekend provided me a greater opportunity to hear the Lord's voice, and it gave me much greater peace and confidence to know where God was calling me.

— James Sappington
Diocese of Kansas City – St. Joseph
