Gospel Meditation

Near my house there is a school for the blind. Often, I see blind people learning how to navigate the world with only a walking stick, even on a busy street with roaring traffic. I'm amazed to see how adept and carefully they get around without sight. Nevertheless, often a sadness arises in me that he or she cannot see all the beautiful colors, images, and persons filling the world around them. Those days, I find myself deeply grateful for the basic privilege of sight. That's part of why the mystery of Jesus as the sight-giver is so moving to me. This week, it's wonderful how Bartimaeus the blind man is no longer content with his limitation and bellows out his desire for Jesus' mercy. In beautiful simplicity, he cries out to the Lord, "Master, let me receive my sight." Jesus quietly heals his sight. And off he goes, fully taking in the world around him. Imagine the delightful new way in which he is able to respond to the world. Like blind Bartimaeus and the courageous people in my neighborhood, we may be able to get around reasonably well in our daily lives. But we are blind to the gestures of heroic love of people close to us. We can't see the desperate need of the hungry, thirsty, imprisoned, exploited, endangered, and so on, in our midst. We can't see Jesus drawing near to us in so many ways, but he is. This Sunday let's cry out to him: Lord have mercy on me! I want to see! And little by little — or perhaps in a flash — we'll see once again, or perhaps for the first time. — Fr. John Muir, ©LPI

Meditación Evangélico

Seguridad de la Oscuridad La lepra, la ceguera y la sordera, ¡oh, Dios mío! Las discapacidades curadas por Jesús en su ministerio público realmente son algo muy importante, ¿no es así? Vividamente simbólicas y rico alimento para la reflexión. Simplemente no sería lo mismo si Jesús hubiera curado el eczema o el pie de atleta o el morderse las uñas compulsivamente. El ciego Bartimeo, sentado al costado de la carretera, en particular, captura mi imaginación. Debido a que tengo una confesión que hacer, a veces, me gusta sentarme en la oscuridad, aunque sé que no es muy bueno para mí. Bueno, escucha: es más fácil, ¿no? No tienes que preocuparte o solucionar los problemas que no puedes ver. Nadie espera que corras a ayudar a alguien si no ves sus heridas. La oscuridad es un buen lugar para estar, si no te sientes muy valiente o muy inteligente o muy capaz. Y cuando Jesús pasa a tu lado, si todo tu mundo es oscuridad, es bastante fácil fingir que simplemente no lo notaste en absoluto. Pero Bartimeo decidió no quedarse en su oscuridad. Más que eso, clamó para ser liberado de ella, incluso cuando todos a su alrededor le decían que se callara. Era tan persistente que llamó la atención de Jesús, y cuando escuchó esas palabras: "Ánimo; ¡Levántate, Jesús te está llamando!", ¿qué hizo? No tartamudeó ni huyó. Tenía valentía. Se levantó. Se necesita valentía para pedir lo que necesitas para seguir a Cristo. Porque si lo pides, lo obtendrás. Y entonces comienza el aterrador y maravilloso viaje del discipulado, testificando de lo que has visto. La vida en la luz, ya no sentados al lado del camino, sino en el camino, viajando hacia el destino más grande de todos. "¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?" Jesús nos pregunta. ¿Tenemos la valentía de responderle? ©LPi
