PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who teach us that you abide in hearts that are just and true, grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace as to become a dwelling pleasing to you. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I allow God's grace to fashion me into a pleasing dwelling for the Lord?

FEELING BLESSED

Congratulations! Welcome to the Kingdom! Rejoice and leap for joy! Sounds a little like Easter, doesn't it? Well, in a very real way, it is. This Sunday, the scriptures remind us that we are blessed and beloved, especially when we have difficulties and don't feel especially blessed. Jesus reminds us that God blesses us in our trials, so we should trust in the saving power of God. We are "raised from the dead," as it were, each time we arise from our hardships. The ultimate proof of all of this is our new life in Christ, who died so that we could be free of sin, and was raised from the dead so that we might all have new life. Wouldn't that be something? A new life, in which poverty is riches and sadness is transformed into lightness of spirit? It's a topsy-turvy world, isn't it? Do you feel blessed today?

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

The Beatitudes

And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

"Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you shall be satisfied.

"Blessed are you who weep now,
for you shall laugh.

"Blessed are you when people hate you
and when they exclude you
and revile you
and spurn your name as evil,
on account of the Son of Man!

Rejoice in that day,
and leap for joy,
for behold, your reward is great in heaven;
for so their fathers did to the prophets.

I DON'T KNOW

There are times when the smartest, but most difficult, thing we can say is, "I don't know." While we often think of this as a sign of weakness, the amount of humility it takes to say this means that the word of God is alive and well in us. To say "I don't know" means that we look outside of ourselves to learn, and to find those who do know, and--ultimately--accept that we have to look to others and to God to help us, to guide us through life. To place our trust and hope only in this world, Paul tells the Corinthians (and us!), makes us people to be pitied. Jesus echoes this in the "woes" section of Luke's Beatitudes, when he points out that trusting in earthly wealth, full bellies, entertainments, and reputation will, eventually, not be enough when we are called beyond this life.

THERE IS MORE

We need to look beyond our present difficulties to see that there is more. We have Scripture and we have a Church that reminds us of the hope that unites us and helps us see beyond and through our difficulties. We also have Catholic publications - notably the Catholic Exponent, our diocesan newspaper. The Exponent's news, commentary, Scripture reflection, and adult faith formation help remind us that there is more, that there is meaning in our struggles and hope despite how bad life might seem. In addition to all that you gain from reading the Exponent, your support for your diocesan newspaper bolsters the Exponent's efforts to distribute the paper more widely for the sake of all who could benefit from reading it. Renew your subscription today by marking the green Special Contribution Envelope from your parish packet "Catholic Exponent" and dropping it into the collection basket. To subscribe please contact the Parish Office (330-274-2253) or contact The Catholic Exponent (exposubscriptions@youngstowndiocese.org or 330-744-5251) to request subscription information. Prayer for Married Couples

Almighty and eternal God,
 You blessed the union of married couples
 so that they might reflect the union
 of Christ with his Church:
 look with kindness on them.
 Renew their marriage covenant,
 increase your love in them,
 and strengthen their bond of peace
 so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.
 We ask this through Christ our Lord.
 Amen.
