

Approach (cont.)

Moves management is the intentional movement of people from becoming aware of our organization (Communications) to higher levels of giving up to giving a Leadership Gift (generally a planned gift).

When organizations think in these terms they have taken the first step in becoming financially self-sustaining.

