45TH ANNUAL LAWN PARTY

WEDNESDAY,
SEPTEMBER 23, 2026

POPE ST. JOHN XXIII
NATIONAL SEMINARY
WESTON, MA

Join us for an evening of fellowship and celebration at the Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary Lawn Party. Enjoy a cocktail reception, dinner, and music while meeting and socializing with our faculty, seminarians, staff, alumni, and fellow supporters. Every guest helps strengthen the Seminary's mission of preparing mature men to answer God's call to the priesthood.

LAWN PARTY HOSTS

Most Reverend Richard G. Henning, S.T.D.
Archbishop of Boston

We are honored to welcome Archbishop Richard G. Henning as the host of the 45th Annual Lawn Party. His presence reflects the Archdiocese of Boston's commitment to fostering priestly vocations and supporting the unique mission of Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary. We are grateful for his leadership and his encouragement of the Seminary's work in preparing future priests to serve the People of God.

Michele and Chris Wickles
Lawn Party Chairpersons

Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary is deeply grateful to Michele and Chris Wickles for serving as Chairpersons of the 45th Annual Lawn Party. Their generosity, leadership, and commitment to the Seminary's mission have helped make this special evening possible. We are thankful for their dedication to supporting the formation of mature men preparing for priestly ministry.

2026 PACEM IN TERRIS AWARD RECIPIENTS

Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary is honored to present the 2026 Pacem in Terris Award to the Most Reverend Robert J. McManus, Bishop of Worcester, and Gail and Terry Murphy of Weston. Their steadfast faith, generosity, and unwavering support of the Seminary exemplify the values of Pacem in Terris and have strengthened our mission of forming mature men for priestly ministry.

The awards will be presented during the Lawn Party.
