Easter

April 27, 2014 ♦ SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER / DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Exaltation, sincerity of heart, indescribable and glorious joy—these are the words that describe the gathering of believers that formed the early Church after Pentecost. Filled with the Spirit, they committed themselves to “The Way” by caring for one another, following the teaching of the apostles, and breaking bread in their homes. Imagine going to Mass every week and being greeted as an old friend or a new one, not worrying whether someone was genuine, and feeling that something miraculous and new was in the world.

Why isn't it this way in every church? In an age that demands proof, I wonder whether we've grown suspicious of faith. In a culture that thinks most people have an angle, I wonder whether we have a hard time believing that someone could love us so much that he would die for us.

Maybe we've all become a little more like Thomas in his doubt rather than in his belief. I keep returning to Peter's words: “Although you have not seen him you love him.”

TODAY'S READINGS
Acts 2:42-47
1 Pt 1:3-9
Jn 20:19-31

It takes a remarkable faith to love someone you haven't seen. But parents do it for their unborn children. We love those who have been taken from us in death. If we can love these, however imperfectly, surely we can love Christ, who died that we might live. Surely we can strive to love all people, known and unknown, because they are God's children.

In the stories of the early Church, we see the evidence of love—joy and compassion for all.

What if every church could do this today?

Is there more than one kind of conversion?

My priest keeps talking about the need for Catholics to "deepen our conversion." I'm already Catholic. What else is there to convert to?

Many times we think of conversion as something that happens only when someone joins the Catholic Church. But the word conversion has more than one meaning. As used by your priest, it means to enter more deeply into a life of faith. As Catholics, we are indeed called to continual conversion.

I have a non-Catholic friend who has the date she accepted Christ on her Bible. I could put January 8, 1962, on my Bible because that's the date of my baptism, the day I was saved. At baptism I received the grace to convert daily when I am old enough to do so on my own.

But my conversion isn't something that happened once in the past. It wasn't the last sacrament I received. It was the first sacrament I received as I began my journey of faith. We deepen our faith and continue our conversion as we live the sacramental life of the Church.

This is seen most clearly through the sacraments of Eucharist and penance. Eucharist is something Catholics participate in weekly, and most Catholics take part in the sacrament of penance at least once a year.

Why? Because we need to deepen our conversion.

Preparación Para Bautismo en Español

Las instrucciones para papas y padrinos serán el 3 de Mayo a las 7:00 p.m. en la oficina de la parroquia. Los padrinos ya deben haber recibido los sacramentos de Confirmación y Primera Comunión, y si son casados deben serlo en el Sacramento de la Iglesia Católica. Este programa es obligatorio para quienes no lo hayan tomado antes. Sería muy bueno tomarlo durante el embarazo. Para reservaciones llamar a la oficina 665-8933.

Los niños no son admitidos a la clase porque distraen la sesión, por favor no los traiga.
