Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andres, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

And they ate and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."

ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

The Easter Sunday season two premiere of The Chosen, an evangelical Christian-produced internet series dramatizing the life of Jesus and his disciples, could have significant influence on religion and culture.

The CHOSEN

The first season of The Chosen focused on the initial meetings between Jesus and his early disciples, Peter Simon and Andrews' struggles with debt, Matthew's encounters with Jesus, Mary Magdalene's meeting with Jesus, and several miraculous events. The second season's initial episodes address Jesus' growing fame. The production team is preparing for a third season of filming.

The character of Jesus is played by the actor Jonathan Roumie, a devout Catholic. The producers have used a Jerusalem set built in Goshen, Utah by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

The Chosen's creator and director Dallas Jenkins said he wanted "to write a show that explores Jesus through the eyes of those around Him." This means exploring characters like Simon Peter, Matthew, Mary Magdalene, Nicodemus, and some of those who benefitted from Jesus' miracles.

The show has three biblical consultants including Catholic priest Father David Guffey, C.S.C., national director of Family Theater Productions. Another consultant is Dr. Doug Huffman, a professor of the Talbot School of Theology at Biola University. Huffman is an ordained minister of the Evangelical Free Church of America. Messianic Jewish Rabbi Jason Sobel of Fusion Global Ministries also serves as a biblical consultant.

BAPTISMAL CLASSES

Baptismal Classes will be on Monday August 9th, at 6:00 p.m. in the conference room of the parish office. Please call the parish office to register, 806-665-8933 ext 3 When you call the office, these are some of the questions that you will be asked.

1. Are you registered with the parish? If not, please come in to register.
2. Are you parents or sponsors? Both will have to take the baptismal class, if sponsors are from out of town, they will need to take the baptismal class in their parish. In order to be sponsors/Godparents if married, they need to be married in the Catholic Church.
3. How old is your child, if 7 and over please ask to speak to Chrissie Silva, so that your child can register for classes, that begin in Sept.

TODOS COMIERON Y SOBRO

Jesus se compadece de aquella multitude que, atraida por los signos que el realizaba al curar a los enfermos, lo siguio hasta aquel lugar.

Sabiendo lo que iba a realizar, Jesus le pregunta a Felipe acerca de como comprar pan para que todos comieran.

Eran tantas personas, que no resultaba posible comprar pan para que tuvieran lo suficiente.

Andres les presenta un muchacho que ofrece “cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados”, pero sabe que eso tampoco puede alcanzar para tanta gente.

Jesus realiza el milagro de multiplicar los panes y los peces y, al final, para que no se desperdicie, reunen doce anastos de pan.

Jesus es el Pan que se repartee y no se acaba. Comanos todos de el.

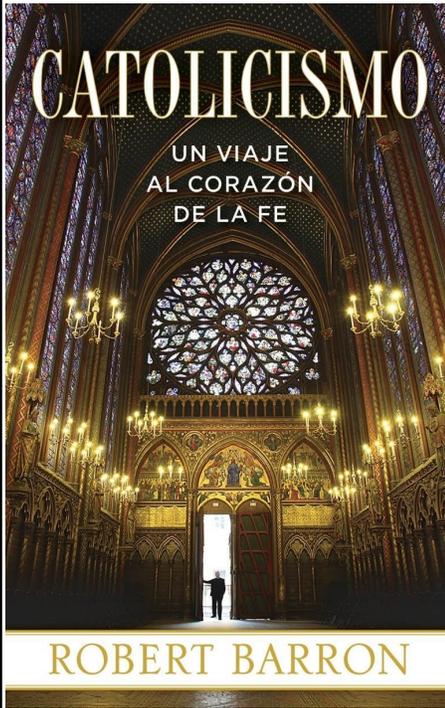

¿QUÉ ES EL CATOLICISMO?

¿Una tradición viva de dos mil años? ¿Una visión del mundo? ¿Una forma de vida? ¿Una relación? ¿Un misterio? En Catolicismo, el padre Robert Barron examina todas estas preguntas y más, intentando captar el cuerpo, el corazón y la mente de la fe católica.

Comenzando desde el cimiento esencial de la encarnación, vida y enseñanza de Jesucristo, el padre Barron se mueve a través de los elementos definitorios del catolicismo — desde los sacramentos, la devoción y la oración, hasta María, los apóstoles y santos, a la gracia, la salvación, el cielo y el infierno— usando su entendimiento dinámico y distintivo del arte, la literatura, la arquitectura, los relatos personales, las escrituras, la teología, la filosofía y la historia para presentar la Iglesia al mundo.

De la mano de su serie documental con el mismo título, Catolicismo es un viaje íntimo que captura “lo católico” en toda su profundidad y belleza.

Ecléctico, único e inspirador, el padre Barron le devuelve la vida a la fe para una nueva generación, con un estilo fiel a verdades atemporales, pero que a la vez habla en la lengua de la vida contemporánea.

Los martes se estara presentando este programa despues de la misa de 7 p.m. De 7:30 p.m. a 8:45 pm, son temas que al final se comentan y se comparten.

Son una herramienta muy eficaz para ilustrarnos en la belleza de nuestra fe, para defenderla y ayudar a seguir instruyendoa nuestros hijos en la educacion de su fe.
