"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."
ROMANS 8:28
Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

Gospel Luke 4:21-30
Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph? He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, ' Physician, cure yourself,' and say. 'Do here is your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum." And he said, "Amen, Is ay to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

Prayer before Reading the Word

In this and every year,
In this and every place,
O God everlasting,
Your Word resounds in the wilderness of Advent,
Calling us to stand upon the height
And to behold the splendor of your beauty.
Fill in the valleys of our neglect;
Bring low our mountains of self-centeredness.
Prepare in our hearts
Your way of righteousness and peace.
Let our love become a harvest of goodness,
Which you will bring to completion
For the day of Christ Jesus,
Who was, who is, and who is to come,
Your Son who lives and reigns with you
In the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. Amen.

El camino perfecto

¿CUÁL ES el camino para ser feliz, para vivir en la paz y armonía cristianas? Pablo, en la segunda lectura de hoy, nos muestra ese camino; lo antepone a todo, incluso a las virtudes de la fe y de la esperanza; es el amor.

En un cántico único y especial, san Pablo va señalando las características de este camino, que nos aprovecha repasar. "El amor es comprensivo, servicial y sin envidia". Si estas cualidades las ponemos en cada una de nuestras acciones, podremos experimentar la cercanía de Dios. Comprender a los demás significa ponerse en el lugar del otro, su realidad, el ambiente en que vive o los problemas que lo rodean. Cuando somos conscientes de las circunstancias de los otros, nuestra actitud es la comprensión. De su lado, la persona comprendida siente una actitud de agradecimiento, aunque no lo manifieste de momento. Comprender a la otra persona nos lleva a servirle de todo corazón, sin esperar nada a cambio. Servir nos llena de gozo y satisfacción, sobre todo cuando lo hacemos con los más necesitados. La comprensión y el servicio nos guarda de envidiar los dones con los que Dios ha dotado a otro ser humano.

El apóstol Pablo prosigue con otras notas de ese camino de perfección. Anota que "el amor no se alegra con la injusticia, sino que se goza en la verdad". Muchas veces sin darnos cuenta, podemos ser injusto con alguien, incluso con nosotros mismos; de ahí la importancia de estar atento para que no nos pase, tenemos que ser testigos de la verdad, aunque esto nos traiga críticas y rechazo de algunas personas.

Pero sin duda, la cúspide de este camino de perfección llega al final de su cántico: "El amor disculpa sin límites, confía sin límites, espera sin límites, soporta sin límite". El perdón, es una gracia especial del amor. Por eso tenemos que pedirla constantemente, para poder perdonar siempre. La confianza es el reflejo y práctica constante de una persona que ama, así me haya defraudado, tengo que confiar siempre en el ser humano, como lo hace Dios conmigo. La esperanza nos mantiene optimistas en nuestro camino de perfeccionamiento y nos motiva a soportar maltratos e injusticias a lo largo de nuestra ruta. Por eso, procuremos mantener la conciencia de vivir continuamente en la presencia de Dios, para crecer en su amor infinito. (J.S.) ■

VIVIENDO NUESTRA FE

El amor trasciende la realización personal y se extiende al tejido social. Por lo mismo, debe ser un ingrediente fundamental de todo entramado educativo. "La doctrina social es un instrumento necesario para una eficaz educación cristiana al amor, la justicia, la paz, así como para madurar la conciencia de los deberes morales y sociales en el ámbito de las diversas competencias culturales y profesionales" (CDSI, 532).
