All Souls' Day - November 2, 2025

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

As the calendar turns to November, our hearts are drawn to two beautiful days that radiate faith, hope, and love: All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day. These feasts are not simply about remembering the dead; they are about remembering who we are, and who we are called to become.

Just a few days ago, our nation quietly marked the 139th birthday of the Statue of Liberty, a monument whose torch still lights our harbor as a sign of welcome and hope. It reminds us that light has power to guide, comfort, and unite. In a similar way, these two feasts of faith remind us that we too are called to be bearers of light in a world often shadowed by fear, grief, and division. The saints carried the torch of Christ's love faithfully through their lives. Now they hand it to us.

On All Saints' Day, we lift our eyes to that great cloud of witnesses, known and unknown, who lived ordinary lives with extraordinary faith. The saints remind us that holiness is not distant or unreachable. It is found in daily acts of love, forgiveness, patience, and courage. It is found in parents who pray with their children, in neighbors who care for the sick, and in those who keep hope alive in dark times. Every saint teaches us that heaven begins when we let Christ live through us.

Then, on All Souls' Day, our gaze turns tenderly toward those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. We pray for our beloved dead not because we fear for them, but because love never ends. Prayer is the way love continues its conversation beyond the veil of death. In praying for them, we also allow their memory to sanctify us and remind us to live our lives in readiness, gratitude, and peace.

These feasts remind us that the Church is larger than we can see. It stretches across heaven and earth, binding together sinners and saints in one communion of love. When we come to the Eucharist, we are never alone. We are surrounded by the prayers of the saints, the mercy of God, and the silent love of those who have gone before us. The altar becomes a meeting place of time and eternity.

Together, these two feasts form one beautiful movement of faith:

- All Saints' Day calls us upward, urging us to aspire to holiness.
- All Souls' Day calls us inward, to remember, to pray, and to love.

They are days of communion where heaven and earth are united in Christ, who conquered death. They remind us that in God's kingdom, no one is forgotten, and love never, ever dies.

God Bless,

Fr. Bryan
