Religious Education Registration Policy, Notices & Consent

ATTENDANCE: For your child to be eligible to receive their First Communion or Confirmation this year the following minimum requirement will have to have been met. Your child must have attended Religious Education classes for the prior year and may not have missed more than 4 classes in the year. Please note if your child was enrolled at a different parish for the previous year, a letter is needed for enrollment.

Attendance is of the upmost importance. Students may miss no more than 4 classes in the catechetical year. Students who are in sacramental prep will be required to make up absences if they reach the maximum number of allotted absences per year. Students who miss more than 4 absences will also not be eligible for sacramental prep the following year. Communication is of the up most importance so please communicate with our office if your child has an absence issue.

SACRAMENTS: If your child is behind on sacraments, please schedule a time to speak to our Director of Religious Education so we can determine the best class for your child.

PAYMENTS: Payment must be made in full at time of registration and/or payment arrangements need to be made prior to your students first class if needed.

PHOTO CONSENT: St. Ann Catholic Church has an Instagram, Twitter, Facebook page and is featured on our parish website where your child/teenager may be pictured for various celebrations. Please note that this registration form, serves as permission to publish any such photos of your child within activities of St. Ann Catholic Church. My signature below, gives permission for my children to be photographed/videoed realizing that this media may be published in newsletters, bulletin boards, teacher training, or other publication FOR THE CHURCH OR DIOCESE USE.

DUTY TO REPORT: St. Ann Catholic Church and its representatives are committed to the confidentiality and privileged communication between all students and families. There are, however, several exceptions. Under the Texas Child Abuse and Neglect Report Statutes, "A person having cause to believe that a child's physical or mental health or welfare has been adversely affected by abuse or neglect by any person shall immediately make a report" under the guidelines set forth by the Abuse and Neglect Report Statutes. In addition, if any individual intends to take harmful, dangerous, or criminal action against another individual, or against himself/herself, we will report such intent or action to the appropriate authorities. By signing below, I acknowledge the receipt of this notice.
