From the Pastor's Corner

CYCLE C ✝ 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

And the master commended the dishonest steward for acting prudently." It's important to pay attention to the details of the parable Jesus tells in today's Gospel. At first glance, it might seem as if Jesus is encouraging us to be dishonest. But in fact, it's just the opposite. The steward in this tale was reported to his master "for squandering his property." In other words, the steward was not being responsible with what he was in charge of. And the master was ready to fire him on account of it. But then, the steward had a change of heart. (This isn't so hard to comprehend--sometimes it takes a real threat for us to realize we need to change our ways, doesn't it?) So the steward went to the people from whom he had previously collected money to "make friends" with them. How? By reducing their debts.

This might seem to be dishonest yet again, but we need to bear in mind that in the end, the master was pleased with the steward's behavior. So this debt reduction must not have affected the master's pocketbook. Rather, it seems probable that the steward had originally hiked up what the debtors owed the master and put the extra cash in his own pocket. This was the sort of extortion that was common in those days, among tax collectors for example. Now, when the steward was about to lose his position, he thought it wise to go back and return that "dishonest wealth" to the folks who had lost it, and gain some sympathy in the process. So, in the end, the steward was making up for his previous cheating behavior by doing something RIGHT and smart. It's this honest behavior that will enable him to take his place in "eternal dwellings." And surely our honest behavior will have the same effect.

The third Sunday of September is referred to as Catechetical Sunday. What is the meaning of this term?

Catechetical Sunday highlights and celebrates the catechetical ministry of the people of God, namely to hand on the values and traditions of our Catholic faith.

Catechesis comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo." It challenges all of us to develop a Catholic identity modeled on Jesus. We learn this from those who handed down that faith to us. We echo that back by the living example of our lives. Catechesis is handing down that tradition to others, hoping they can echo that back in their own lives. The presumption is that we do have something to hand on; this calls each of us to grow in faith and knowledge, and to share that with others.

Whether or not we literally teach, all of us are teachers in the way we live. What are we echoing?

St. Francis is attributed with the following statement, which speaks to the heart of Catechetical Sunday: "Preach the Gospel at all times. If necessary, use words."

Prayer for Catechists

God of our fathers and mothers, today we mark Catechetical Sunday, the day we recommit ourselves to teaching and forming disciples to continue your work in this world.

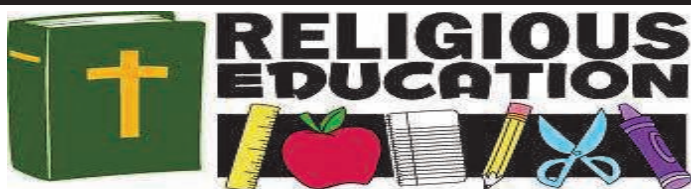

In the beginning, you created man to please you and offer you companionship. We turned away from you without knowing the great love you had for us. Help us to recapture that understanding of your love for us and for creation. Give us wisdom to hand on to the next generation that love you freely give us.

We ask all that is good to come upon our catechetical leaders and the people whom they lead to the faith.

We ask all this in the name of the primary teacher of the faith, Jesus the Christ. Amen

What a great celebration you gave me for my 50th Birthday! I thank the Almighty God for giving me 50 years to live in this wonderful world. I also thank Fr. Patrick Buckley, a friend and a brother to me, for his love, care, and company. Last, but not least, you, my dear people, for your continued support, love, and sharing. I am so honored to be in this wonderful parish. Thank you so much for your birthday prayers, wishes, cards, and gifts. I also thank the ladies who gave their time and energy to make this celebration a great event.

I am very much humbled and grateful to you for what you have been to me for the last 15 years of my stay in this parish. My heart just keeps thanking you and says a big THANK YOU for what you are to me. Thank you for making my birthday so special and wonderful.

Thank you and God bless you. Fr. Xavier

Please keep our Military and their families in your prayers.

RCIA Hospitality Volunteers Needed

Many RCIA candidates are drawn to the Church because they have experienced the warmth and welcome of our parish community. When you volunteer to provide a light breakfast snack for RCIA, you continue this wonderful tradition of hospitality that embodies our parish community.

RCIA meets in the rectory every Sunday from 10am-noon, Sept. 25, 2016 until May 1, 2017, so as you can see, we need many volunteers and as the saying goes, many hands make light work. No need to fuss - just drop off muffins, coffee cake or something light in the rectory a few minutes before or after going to Mass. To welcome & support our candidates, please call Lisa Dolan at 758-0119

Thinking of Becoming Catholic?

The parish community of St. Christopher and St. Sylvia invites all adults interested in becoming Catholic – those not baptized, those baptized in other Christian traditions, and baptized Catholics who never received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation – to join us on a journey of discovery. Find out how Catholics follow Jesus to deepen their lives of faith. Come and see what the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is all about. SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 2016
