STEWARDSHIP REPORT

March 26, 2017.....$11,721.83

Thank you for your continued generosity!

From the Pastor's Corner

Peter said to him in reply, "Though all may have their faith in you shaken, mine will never be." Peter thought pretty highly of his faith. On the eve of Christ's death he professed, in essence, that he was more committed to Jesus than anyone else. And yet, we know how the story turns out: when put to the test in the moment that mattered, Peter "began to curse and to swear, 'I do not know the man.'"

On this Palm Sunday, we hear many stories of betrayal. The crowds, who once hailed Jesus with "hosannas," will soon be chanting, "Let him be crucified!" Judas, who was counted among the closest companions of the Lord, turns him over to the chief priests for thirty pieces of silver. And Peter falls short in the moment of truth, and then "went out and began to weep bitterly."

Here in the hours before Christ faces crucifixion, he is surrounded by false friends. Just when he most needs the support, he is abandoned. No wonder he feels the suffering even of being forgotten by his Father while he hangs on the cross, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" What trials Jesus endured, not only physically but emotionally as well.

It's easy to glaze over this as a story from the past that does not involve us. But in truth, Jesus suffered all of this for each one of US. He would have preferred things to go otherwise, but submitted to his Father's will because he knew "it must come to pass in this way." Jesus' passion and death took place in order to bring US salvation. So today, may we not be counted among his many betrayers, but may we be truly grateful for the gift of the cross and show it through a life of sincere faith.

There is SO much on FORMED to help you experience Holy Week in a deeply spiritual way!.

Try the audio "Glimpses Along the Way of the Cross." Many parishioners are using the book Read-Aloud Book of Bible Stories; check it out!

For Holy Thursday watch the program Catholicism, Session 7: Word Made Flesh, True Bread of Heaven (available in Spanish). Another excellent choice is the program Lectio: Eucharist (available in Spanish) For Good Friday, watch the movie: No Greater Love, or listen to the audio The Passion of Christ in Light of the Holy Shroud of Turin.

There is a LOT more...

You must go to FORMED.org to sign up by clicking on "Register". Then enter our Parish code BT2DRR and your email address to create your free account.

Fast from hitting the snooze alarm. Get up and use the extra time for prayer.

At the grocery store, pray for the farmers and all those who help make available the food that you will bring to your table.

Prayerfully read one of the Gospel accounts of Jesus' Passion, Death, and Resurrection. For example, you could read the Gospel of Luke 22:39 to 24:12.

Volunteer for a parish program that helps those in need.

Let a favorite hymn run through your mind as a prayer. Select one with words that have great meaning for your life now.

Fast from comparing yourself to others. It causes isolation and the illusion that we are all separate rather than one in God.

Recognize your own needs and give them their due. Give others the gift of being able to help you from time to time.

Help Jesus get to Jerusalem.

Jesus told two disciples to get the donkey and colt that were tethered. The disciples did so and later Jesus rode the donkey through the streets of Jerusalem with crowds hailing him, spreading their coats on the road as well as branches of trees.
