From the Pastor's Corner

GOSPEL MEDITATION 1st Sunday of Lent

As we enter into this Lenten season of penance and self-denial, we're reminded that the God we follow is no stranger to these things. In this Sunday's Gospel, we see the temptations of Jesus which have parallels throughout Scripture and in our own lives. The apostle John warns against temptations to sensual lust, enticement of the eyes, and a pretentious life (cf. 1 John 2:16). Before Eve plucks the fruit from the tree, she hears it is good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom (cf. Genesis 3:6). The temptations of Jesus are our own.

"Turn these stones to bread." Here is the lure of bodily comfort, like good food or sensual lust. It's the simplest of temptations because it's instinctual. We want good for our bodies! But there may be times these bodily goods don't serve the higher good for our souls. The leap "from the temple parapet" would entice the eye of the person watching. A feat like this would prove Jesus' Messianic ability. His popularity could be a shortcut to the cross. We might not be daredevils, but we want people to like us and be impressed by us. Do we sacrifice our values along the way? To "bow and worship" the devil - and so claim power and a pretentious life - seems like a dramatic temptation. Not everyone may feel enticed by power in the professional sense, but all of us want control. A volunteer team can feel just as intense as the boardroom! How often do we prefer to be in control of our lives (and perhaps even the lives of others), rather than allow God to be God?

When we consider areas of temptation and sin, it's not to feel ashamed. The temptation in the desert reminds us that we are not alone and that the strength of Jesus can be our strength, too.

LISTEN: Love - Sacrifice – Trust, He Showed Us the Way

Fr. Mike Schmitz shares important insights on the meaning of Christ's Cross. He shows how God's rescue mission for us includes the need for each person to embrace his own cross in order to reestablish trust in the Father and the understanding that love requires sacrifice. It also includes a bonus segment on Stations of the Cross, which features reflections on the Lord's Passion and Death, accompanied by moving audio dramatizations from the Truth and Life Audio Bible.

ESTUDIO: Una Cuaresma Inolvidable/A Lent to Remember

A través de las muy aclamadas series originales del Augustine Institute, Symbolon y Perdonado:

El Poder Transformador de la Confesión, Una Cuaresma Inolvidable explora los caminos por los cuales Dios sale a nuestro encuentro con su misericordia. En el sufrimiento Pascual de Cristo en la cruz y con sus brazos abiertos a todos los que lo buscan en el Sacramento de la Reconciliación, Dios se hace presente con todo su amor y todo su ser para el mundo entero.

Reflexionando el Misterio Pascual y llevándonos paso a paso por el rito de la confesión, Una Cuaresma Inolvidable nos recuerda que Dios se acerca a cada uno de nosotros durante la cuaresma para que experimentemos su amor infinito e indescriptible.

Penitential Disciplines of Lent

In addition to choosing their own penitential practices, Catholics are also asked to observe the practices of fast & abstinence during the 40 days of Lent.

- 1. Everyone 14 years or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent.
- 2. Everyone 18 years & under the age of 59 years is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday. (The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one's 59th birthday.)
- 3. On Ash Wednesday & Good Friday, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other smaller meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk & fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
- 4. Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.
