BLACK AND INDIAN
MISSION OFFICE EST. 1984

This week's 2nd Collection is
Catholic Missions Among Black & Indian People-BIMC

It exists to help diocesan communities build up the Church and preach the Gospel of Jesus among African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native people of God.

The amazing generosity of parishioners enable this office to form & train parish Catechesis, help educators reach kids, sponsor events & formation that encourage living the Christian life in culturally appropriate ways, and encourage vocations.

From the Pastor's Corner

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Loving isn't too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to "love your neighbor as yourself" seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated.

Bring the new neighbors some baked goods (normal and gluten-free, just in case). Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister "just because." There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus' day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But "exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant" isn't the example Jesus gives.

"A man fell victim to robbers... they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead." The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man's care out of his own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of others? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it's an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won't stick in your mind (or schedule) to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can't help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be "the one who treated him with mercy."

St. Kateri Tekakwitha
Lily of the Mohawks

Listen: St. Kateri Tekakwitha Lily of the Mohawks

Young Kateri suffered misunderstanding and ridicule due to her counter-cultural choices as a Mohawk to remain an unwed virgin for the love of Jesus Christ. Experience our first Native American Saint's struggles to follow Our Lord within her tribe and through the teachings of some early Jesuit Missionaries.

Read: A Family of Saints (SAINTS LOUIS AND ZELIE MARTIN)

The recent, and unprecedented, canonization by Pope Francis of a husband and wife, Louis and Zélie Martin, parents of Saint Thérèse, has stirred a great interest in this extraordinary family. This work is the definitive biography of this amazing "family of saints."

A man had been beaten, robbed, and left along the road. Two men just passed him. Finally a Samaritan came along and helped the poor man. This is what God means when he says to love one's neighbor as oneself, to help others. It is also where we get the expression, "Be a good Samaritan."
