CONFESSION UPDATE

Confessions are on Saturdays from 3:30 PM—4:30 PM outside the CHURCH or by appointment. Call the rectory if you want to make an appointment for a priest to hear your confession.

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive. Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life? If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple. ©LPi

LINDWOOD SPIRITUAL CENTER IS HOSTING SEPTEMBER WITH THE SISTERS

During this challenging time, the Sisters of St. Ursula invite you to join them on-line, day and night, as they open up the scriptures in timely ways that are new and profound. The Good Sisters are offering the following two classes:

BY WOMEN/FOR WOMAN: This guided morning experience will focus on the challenges women face working full time and the daily demands of family and life in general. You will be nourished and strengthened in your spiritual life through the guided method of Lectio Divina led by Elizabeth Anne DiPippo, SU. This multi-step process of praying with Scripture is a tool used to help refresh your spirit. Please have your Bible on hand to follow the readings. Details are as follows:
When: September 10th, 9:30 AM to NOON
How: You will be emailed simple guidance to meet you on Zoom
Suggested donation*: $30 and the deadline is 9.3.20

THEY STAND TALL: This is an evening series led by Carol Perry, SU, which celebrates the astonishing women who stood beside our Biblical Patriarchs. Such women as Sarah and Hagar, of Rebecca, of Rachel & Leah who are some of the strong examples of standing as an individual unafraid to love, to plot, or to explore the road that beckons.
When: September 15th, 22nd, & 29th, 6:30 PM—8PM
How: You will be emailed simple guidance to meet you on ZOOM
Suggested donation*: $100 for the series & the deadline is 9.8.20
For further info. Call Lindwood at 845.876.4178 or email them at: lscoffice@st-ursula.org

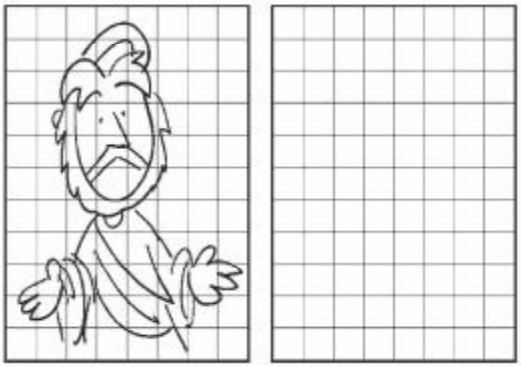
PUZZLE

Copy the picture square by square.



MISSION

Every day firemen, policemen and soldiers give up their lives to protect yours. Thank God for them.

Hold on a minute…..”Pick up your cross and follow me” means that we have to let go of our old selves.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

To report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York, contact the victims assistance coordinator at 646-794-2949 or victimsassistance@archny.org. Information can also be found on the archdiocesan website www.archy.org. In keeping with the archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

TEMPORARY CLOSING

The St. Paul’s Shed is temporarily closed. Please do not leave clothing or anything else outside of the shed. We will keep you updated about when it will reopen. Thank you.
