RELIGIOUS ED AMNESTY

It worked this year and 40 little folks arrived to experience religious education and most importantly the Sunday Mass with their friends and families. If you know (or perhaps are) someone who has stepped away, come home.

Enroll for religious education, Confirmation, Communion, Confession or even Baptism for your kids...and perhaps for yourself. Anyone who comes home can put their kid in the grade they are at school for one more year. Talk to us, talk to others, and if possible invite folks to Mass with you to help bring folks with "Catholic" names back to the practice of the Catholic Faith!

Mis amigos, quiero que sepan que tienen un hogar aquí en St. Christopher/Good Shepherd. Si tiene hijos que desean o necesitan recibir formación en la fe, recibir sacramentos como el Bautismo, la Comunión y la Confirmación, tenemos un camino a seguir. Esperamos pronto tener a alguien que sea bilingüe para ayudarlo a registrarse para las clases de otoño. Espero que pronto también podamos tener una misa ocasional en español, eventos comunitarios y procesiones, pero también necesito su ayuda. Dígame a sus amigos y esperamos ayudar a nuestra parroquia a crecer con todos ustedes.

Welcome to the family
Thomas James...

Reconciliation Monday

April 3rd 2-8pm at Good Shepherd Only because of renovations at St. Christopher's finishing up

Reconciliation or Confession is the primary way that God works His renovation on us! Without it we are often just painting over water damage without pointing or plastering...

Just go in and say Father—it's been a while.....

Helpful questions to ask yourself ahead of time:

My friendship with God and my duties to Him:

Is God really first in my life? Do I make career, reputation, busy-ness or my opinions the operative God in my life? Do I pray seriously for quality time each day? Do I know what the voice of God sounds like in my prayer? Do I use His name poorly, or joke, tempt or treat Him like an add-on in my life rather than it's center? Since my last confession do I skip Mass without a real serious reason? Am I prepared and focused to the best of my ability at Mass?

My relationship with others and myself as a Catholic:

What is my family life like? Are there longstanding grudges, do I care for my kids or my parents in a truly Christian way. If my parents are sick or homebound do I make arrangements for them spiritually as well as medically? Do I show my children love? Am I always giving advice? Am I careless with my duty as a Catholic parent? Do I pray with my children? Do I let my children walk all over me?

Have I ever taken someone's life? Have I harmed another person seriously? Have I helped others to do away with someone because of threats or convenience?

In thoughts or deeds do I engage in sins of impurity? Cheated on a spouse in person or online?

Do I owe anyone a large amount of money with no thought of repaying? Do I cheat on taxes? Do I give to God what is right or am I stingy with God? As an employee do I give an honest day's work? As a boss do I exploit my workers or make unreasonable demands?

Do I lie, gossip, spread truth to hurt people? Am I sinfully envious of others' life, possessions, marriage or lifestyle?

All of these are sometimes all too common and create a barrier we make ourselves to others and God. Don't worry about the act of contrition, be clear, be sorry and open yourself to the love, forgiveness and mercy of God.

That's the most important way to make a great confession.....
