Sometimes it’s prudence and other it’s just cowardice but often we don’t speak up. I just want to give a bravo to some of our folks recently who defended the values we hold in a very public venue. One of them was a middle schoolers on “Take a Stand Day” (as if all stands are equal) did an amazing display on the right to life. She was amazing and heroic and very even handedly and cheerfully spoke to the sacredness of human life “no matter how small” as Dr Suess says. It encouraged a respectful and even surprisingly inquisitive response. Here’s a picture...Bravo!

Holy Name Fish Fry—The last one is on Friday, 3/22. Come from 5-7pm at St Christopher's School Building come @ 530pm & beat 5pm early bird crush of people.

Last Friday, we served over 100 folks at Good Shepherd as several women from Our Lady's Guild helped me big time and served soup and salad before Stations of the Cross. We hope you enjoyed this change of venue and enjoyed the amazing soups and more.

Special thanks to Barb (and Rick) Rizzolo, Mary Paccione, Lisa Dolan, Fran Remeneck, Maureen Terranova, Kim & Dave Whelley, Jen Beichert & a few anonymous helpers.

Without faith much of what we do isn't worth doing...

Father Maurer could just as easily teach his classes at a public library
CYO could easily become AAU or Modified Public School Basketball
Breakfasts & Coffees could be done at firehouses or VFWs
Charity and gift cards at Christmas could be done by social workers

What should make the difference is the WHY: to help ourselves & others know, love and serve God. Let's make a genuine effort to invite and pray for everyone we serve, work, eat, play and pray with to experience the call of God to go deeper and follow Him, not just keep doing the same old thing. I'd like to challenge our parish organizations to ask the question: why do we do what we do? Is it helping people come to experience God? Does our organization do what we like or ask "what does the parish need?" Let's pray for some great progress again this year in having our organizations be effective transmitters of Catholic faith not just venues for sports, food, fundraisers or money at holidays.
