A REFLECTION BY FR. WILLIAM HERIC

Dear Friends in Christ,

Sir Isaac Newton once said, "If I can see farther it's because I stand on the shoulders of giants." What a fitting perspective as the church once again approaches the great celebration of All Saints Day on Tuesday, Nov. 1. These "Friends of God" as St.

Thomas Aquinas described them, encourage us to make growth in Christian love our primary goal in life. Our challenge is to remember that in the midst of the many competing needs and values that clamor for our attention, especially as the "Holiday Season" commences earlier each year. All the more reason why the church makes All Saints Day a holy day of obligation. We will gather for Mass this Tuesday, November 1, at 6:30 pm. Please join us!

Our time of sacred memory continues with the commemoration of "All Souls" on Wednesday, Nov. 2. We recall that every single soul who has ever lived and died matters to God and is loved forever by God. It is a natural time for us to remember our own beloved dead, especially those who have passed this year. We will gather to celebrate All Souls at our usual Wednesday 6:30 pm Mass. You are also invited to write in our "Book of Remembrance" the names of those you would like us to pray for at all our Masses in November.

The giant souls in life are those whose examples inspire us to grow in faith, hope, and love. One of the ways we do that is by our stewardship of the time, talent, and treasure God gives us to share. Thanks to all of you who have made a stewardship pledge of your treasure in the coming calendar year. We continue with our "Season of Thanks" campaign for the next three weeks and I encourage everyone to participate. A gentle reminder once again, that stewardship is not so much a program to raise money for the parish, but rather an opportunity to demonstrate our thanks for all God's blessings, and our trust in his continued providence. Remember the example of the dear souls of Walter and Elizabeth.

All you holy men and women...pray for us! Live Jesus in our hearts...forever!

Fr. William Heric, Pastor

TOLTON: FROM SLAVE TO PRIEST

A PLAY AT SEATTLE UNIVERSITY

Join Seattle University and Immaculate Conception Church as we celebrate Black Catholic History Month!

On November 19, 2022, we are hosting Tolton: From Slave to Priest, a powerful multi-media live production, filled with music, drama and inspiring performances. Actor Jim Coleman tells the story of Fr. Augustus Tolton, who was born a slave to Peter Paul and Martha Tolton, of Brush Creek, Missouri, and grew up to become the first African American Catholic priest.

Fr. Augustus Tolton's life was one of hidden holiness. His cause for canonization has been presented to the Vatican and is moving forward quickly.

This event is sponsored and hosted by Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Black Catholic Advisory Circle, Seattle University's Campus Ministry, and Seattle University's Institute for Catholic Thought and Culture.

If you'd like to carpool, please arrive to St. Bridget's no later than 5:45 pm. Please scan the QR Code with your smart phone to register, or go to: <https://tinyurl.com/4njdvrcj>

REMEMBER TO VOTE

Be a faithful citizen

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern." - Pope Francis, 9/16/13

Political engagement is part of our Catholic Call

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Catholic bishops urge Catholics to form their consciences through being open to truth, studying Scripture and Church teaching, examining facts and background information, and prayerful reflection (no. 18). Visit FaithfulCitizenship.org to learn about the steps you can take to form your conscience, watch videos and access other great resources on conscience formation for faithful citizens.
