A REFLECTION BY FR. HERIC

Dear Friends in Christ,

The joy of Easter Sunday this year was tempered by the death of Pope Francis the next day. I learned of the news early Monday morning and immediately burst into tears at the passing of such an amazing leader in our church, and really the whole world. My tears reflect the sadness so many feel at the loss of our shepherd, but also the joy of his liberation from the suffering he endured these past years, as his health steadily declined. I shall never forget his last appearance at St. Peter's Square on Easter Sunday. The pope was too weak to raise his hands or even to smile, but there he was announcing the good news of the resurrection to those in the square and to all God's children around the world.

The scene took me back to when Francis first appeared on the balcony to greet the world after being elected pope in 2013. Wearing a simple cassock, he greeted those present with a friendly "Buena Sera, Good Evening." He would then ask the crowd at St. Peter's to bless and pray for him as he began his ministry as the successor of Peter. What an amazing and fruitful ministry it was. Pope Francis called the church to be more humble, welcoming and inclusive of everyone, especially those on the peripheries. Like his namesake, Pope Francis kept the poor and vulnerable at the forefront of church life and ministry. He did the same with our call to be good stewards of our planet Mother Earth. His gift in recent years was to call the church to be more synodal, more listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit speaking through all the children of God.

It's tempting to rush ahead in speculation of who the next pope will be. I suggest for now we simply stand in the moment, trusting that the Holy Spirit who gave us our beloved Francis, will direct the selection of our next pontiff, a word that means "bridge builder." Here's hoping that the next pope will be just that. On this Mercy Sunday, I give our late holy father the last word here:

"A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just," "God never tires of forgiving; it is we who tire of asking for his mercy," and "Mercy will always be greater than any sin".

Eternal rest grant unto Francis O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Fr. William Heric, Pastor
