From the Desk of Deacon Bob

The human virtue of "honor" is one of our highest values. In our wedding vows, we hear the bride and the groom promise "I will love you and honor you all the days of my life." The Boy Scout Oath and the Girl Scout Promise begin with the words, "On my honor." The scripture readings for today can be summed up as to what it means "to honor".

The Ten Commandments are about how we love and honor God and our neighbor. Jesus is irate about the dishonor the merchants heap upon the sacred space of the Temple. He overturns their tables, scattering their money and their commodities everywhere. The merchants had vandalized the sacred place of God (in Jewish theology, the Temple was the "footstool" of God) by turning the Temple into a place of human commerce.

The center of Jesus' life is expressed in the Great Commandment of loving God and loving neighbor. For Jesus, it was not only important to love and honor the Temple, the physical building dwelling place of God, but to love and honor the physical dwelling place of God in the human body. If we begin to see the human body as the Temple of God, as disciples of Jesus, how well do we love and honor this sacred dwelling place of God?

We are shocked when others vandalize and destroy our sacred worship spaces. Are we as equally outraged when people vandalize and destroy the Temple of God dwelling within our human body? We see the violence inflicted upon this Holy Temple by other humans every day. Human bodies riddled with bullets, spouses and children physically abused, young women and men sold in the sexual trade, babies aborted, children dying from the poisons in our air, water, and land, are daily reminders how often humanity totally disregards the command of God to love and honor God's Temple enfleshed in our humanity. How do we define the "merchants and moneychangers" of our society? Do we participate directly or indirectly in their commerce? How do we treat the Temple of God enfleshed within ourselves?

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

SWS STAFF SHOWCASE
Becky Smisek ~ 6th Grade Teacher

Did you know that Mrs.

Smisek has been teaching Social Studies at St. Wenceslaus School for 14 years! No doubt her favorite subject! A product of Catholic school education herself, she came to us in 1999 and started out as an instructional aide. She then went on to teach physical education classes and then did a long-term substitute assignment in the 1st grade before she got her first classroom of 6th graders in 2004. She got her Business degree from Mankato State University in 1988 and worked in the business world for awhile before being called back to the education field and graduating from St. Catherine's University in 2004 with an MA in Education plus Teaching degree. Twelve years later she went back to school again to get her STEM Certificate from St. Catherine's University with seven other staff members of St. Wenceslaus School. What a great opportunity for our school to now be a C-STEM school! She feels very much at home here at St. Wenceslaus School being surrounded by a great staff, supportive families, and, of course, God's guidance. She has been married to her husband Steve for over 30 years and has three adult children and three grandsons, who are her pride and joy. If you don't see Mrs. Smisek in school, she will most likely be on a golf course somewhere in the nation as her bucket list is to golf in all of the lower 48 states!

St. John's & St. Scholastica

Our Lady of Good Help Council of Catholic Women

Our Lady of Good Help Council of Catholic Women meeting is at St. Scholastica Church Mon., March 5th, at 6:30 pm beginning with Rosary. We will share some Lenten thoughts to help us with our spiritual journey through Lent. Everyone is welcome to attend. Come share new ideas for the success of our council and working together with wonderful faith-filled women.

Thank You!

The breakfast chairpersons, Paul and Megan Giesen, would like to thank the committee along with the confirmation students for their help at the WCC Breakfast. We would also like to thank Michael's Foods for their donation of the eggs and Strike Force Bowl ~ Darin & Julie Pomije for their donation of the bread.

Thank you for keeping the sidewalks cleared!

I would like to acknowledge the work and efforts of all who keep our sidewalks cleared of snow and salted on our church campuses. Following the snowfall of this past weekend, 3 people figure very prominently and importantly in keeping us safe on our walkways. Kevin Giesen and Jim Weiers faithfully attend to St. John the Evangelist in Union Hill. Terry Deutsch carefully clears snow and treats the ice on the sidewalks of St. Scholastica in Heidelberg. I, as one with bionic joints and a number of other spare parts, am extremely grateful to these 3 people on these wintry, icy days.
