With the Light of God Lighting the Way We Proclaim "Good News" to an often Dark World

Great joy might not be the best description of today's world two thousand years after the Messiah's birth: tribal conflicts continue in Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, and African countries; millions flee their homeland as refugees; acts of terrorism; shootings take place regularly in our schools and cities.

Today's message of "great joy or the Christian message of Good News is not the usual human story. Often today bad news dominates our communities and world. There also may be sad news in many of our families. We could well ask, "Shepherds, why your jubilee? Why your songs of joyful cheer? What great brightness do you see? What good tidings do you hear?"

Bringing joy, peace, and justice to the world is, in part, left to us Christians. God sent us God's Son to become like us ~ a human person ~ and our Messiah. Jesus Christ brought through the cross the forgiveness of our sins and our redemption. The possibility for eternal life has been offered to all people.

But God also sends us and commissions us ~ as the Body of Christ ~ to be Christ to others. The biblical story of sin and division began between two brothers: Cain and Abel. It could have been two sisters, two friends, two fellow workers, or two spouses. Some of us don't even need another person for such hostility to arise, for sometimes we don't even like ourselves.

The presence of the Risen Lord in us and through us causes us to rightly bring "good news" to the world's darkness. In the here and now, glad tidings of great joy come alive when we learn to love ourselves better and care for others ~ yes, even our enemies.

We proclaim good news of great joy!

Merry Christmas

New Prague Area Catholic Community

(quoting many words from the Catholic Bishop of St. Cloud)

Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

Poetry, more so than prose, has the uncanny ability to engage our lives. Poetry will challenge us and force us to reflect on the assumptions upon which we have built our world. This is especially true about religious poetry. Two of the most significant, modern religious poets are Denise Levertov and Mary Oliver. On this fourth Sunday of Advent, I give you two poems that Mary Oliver wrote about the Annunciation.

ANNUNCIATION

To the impossible: Yes!
Enter and penetrate
O Spirit. Come and bless
This hour: the star is late.
Only the absurdity of love
Can break the bonds of hate.

AFTER ANNUNCIATION

This is the irrational season
When love blooms bright and wild.
Had Mary been filled with reason
There'd have been no room for the child.

As Christmas draws near, may the Spirit enter and penetrate our lives with the absurdity of love that destroys all hate and death. May we be filled with the same irrational impulse to welcome, as Mary did, the Child of God into our lives.

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

Greeters Needed

We are still looking for greeters for our 10:30 am Mass on Christmas Day. It involves arriving 30 minutes in advance to welcome our parishioners and guests, and staying a few moments late to pass out candy canes and wish them well. If you and/or your family would be willing to do this, we will reserve a pew for you at that Mass. Please contact Laura in Faith formation to volunteer for this welcoming ministry. (952) 758-5131. Blessings!

Eucharistic Adoration

This Advent, and Christmas season, grow closer to our Lord by spending some quiet time in prayer before the Eucharist. The SW Chapel is open every Friday from 9 am to Midnight, with Jesus present, waiting for you! Come when your schedule allows, stay in the quiet of His presence as long as you desire. WE NEED YOUR HELP! The Adoration Committee is looking for 1 or 2 people to be long-term substitutes (from mid-January through March) for the 3 pm Adoration hour. Please call Diane at 758-5688 or Ann at 758-2735 if you can help, or if you have any questions about Adoration.

Knights of Columbus Free Throw Contest

The New Prague Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a Council Free Throw Contest on Sun., Jan. 27th from 1-2 pm. The contest is open to all girls and boys ages 9 through 14. The competition will be held at the St. Wenceslaus Parish Activities Center. You may register the day of the event; registration will begin at 12:30 pm. The Gift for Married Couples

It has been said that the greatest gift you can give your children is two parents very much in love with each other. Polish up this gift and put a bow on it at a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. You deserve the best and your children need to see you reaching for it. Next Weekend opportunity is Feb 8-10 in Buffalo and Feb 15-17 in Belle Plaine (a Non-Residential Weekend is where you go home each evening). To register go to twincitieswwme.com or call (612) 756-8720.

God Bless the Newly Baptized

Welcome and congratulations to Miles Jacob Gillen, son of Bradley Gillen & Natalie Pumper. We rejoice with your family on this joyful occasion!

Do you (or someone you know) need a Pastoral Minister visit?

There are many people that may need a pastoral visit, (hospitalized, homebound, nursing home, tragedy, illness or injury, financial concerns, mental health issues and others). We would love to help. We are not always in the know about people in need; HIPPA Laws and people "being afraid to ask for help" can prevent us from being our church community presence to those in need. Please, if you or someone you know might be in need of a visit or just a phone call, let us know. Call Deacon Bob Wagner, or Ruth Weinandt.

Loaves and Fishes

Loaves and Fishes has been an outreach ministry serving meals to those in need at St. Mark's Church in Shakopee every other month. Sadly, six of us who started with the program are leaving because of different reasons. Our last dinner will be Jan. 3rd. We are the coordinators of purchasing the food, preparing it, and also serving and clean up. We have a list of dedicated volunteers that we have used each month. If a group or individual is interested in taking it over, please contact Ken and Rosella Kes at 758-3578, Diane Vaughan at 758-3295, or Judy Kubes at 758-6178 for more information.

...Looking forward to tax time?

Have you lost the ability to deduct your contributions since the new tax laws have increased the standard deduction? There are options for you to give to our church and receive a tax deduction.

1. Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD). Owners of IRAs who are at least age 70½ can contribute some or all of their IRA's distribution to charity. An IRA has a required minimum distribution after you turn 70½ ~ this amount is taxed as ordinary income, UNLESS you process the distribution as a QCD!
2. Donor Advised Funds (DAF). You may be able to deposit current and future contributions into a DAF. The amount deposited may be over the threshold that would allow you to itemize the total this current year; while holding the funds in the sponsored DAF for future contributions.

Please check with your tax and/or financial advisor for details and to see if these tax options work for you (and for our church).

Religious Give Thanks

"This money is pure gift," writes a religious sister of the support made possible by the Retirement Fund for Religious. "It enables us to continue providing care for our elderly sisters." Your gift to last week's collection helps hundreds of religious communities meet pressing retirement needs while continuing to serve the People of God. Thank you for your generosity!

St. John's Feast Day

Fr. Theisen will celebrate Mass on Thurs., Dec. 27th at 6 pm at St. John's. It is the Titular Feast Day for the church and thus is raised to the level of a Solemnity. A Plenary Indulgence is attached to those who celebrate this Solemnity through visiting the Church and devoutly reciting the "Our Father" and the "Creed" (which we will do during the Mass). In addition, to gain the Plenary Indulgence, one must have the intention of gaining the indulgence and meet the following 3 conditions: 1. Make a sacramental confession, 2. Receive our Lord in Eucharistic Communion, and 3. Make a prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff (the Pope). These 3 conditions may be met several days before or after the Solemn Feast Day. Fr. Theisen will make himself available for Confession on that day 45 minutes before Mass.

Western Catholic Community Feasibility Study
Thank you for participating! There is still time.

Thank you to everyone who responded to the feasibility study! There is still time to complete a survey, if you have not already, by going to www.markdavyassoc.com/wccsurvey. We will share our results and next steps with the parish within the next couple of months.
