Padre's Pen ~ Divine Mercy Devotions

On April 30, 2000, Pope (now Saint) John Paul II Canonized Sr. Faustina and extended to the Universal Church the Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday. The following month the Congregation for Divine Worship issued a decree stating, "throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come."

This year we will celebrate this Feast by having the monthly Eucharistic Adoration for the Western Churches in the Church of St. John's following the 10 am Mass on Sun., April 28, until the closing prayers and Benediction at the Hour of Mercy, 3 pm. We will need to have some people sign up for this time frame to insure Our Lord is not left alone on the altar. The image of Divine Mercy will be displayed as well. Fr. Theisen will be hearing confessions from 1:30 pm until 2:30 pm that day as well.

Preparation for this Feast Day can begin on Good Friday. We will have a regular Good Friday Service at 7:30 pm at St. Scholastica (Reading of the Passion of Our Lord According to John, Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Communion). At 7 pm (just prior to the service) Fr. Theisen will lead the Divine Mercy Chaplet and the prayers for the first day of the Divine Mercy Novena where we pray for different souls each day for 9 days. This is a very easy chaplet that takes less than 10 minutes to pray. Pamphlets will be made available for your use in this novena and the pamphlets will give a more thorough explanation for this Feast Day and the novena/devotions/prayers associated with it.

Part of the devotions associated with The Feast of Divine Mercy is our Blessed Lord's promise to St. Faustina that, "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" on this Feast Day. Holy Mother Church has institutionalized this promise in the form of an Indulgence offered for those who participate in the devotions on Divine Mercy Sunday (an indulgence is remission of the temporal punishment due to sin). To receive the full indulgence, one must: Participate in the devotions on the day, pray at least an "Our Father" and "Hail Mary" for the Holy Father's intention, receive Holy Communion, Make a good confession within a few days before or after or on the day, and have a detachment from all sin in one's life.

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

Recently, I discovered AXS TV. On this cable station are interviews, old taped rock concerts, etc. of the "rock heroes" of my past. As I watch Dan Rather interview people like Stephen Stills, David Crosby, Eric Clapton, I think, "What happened! You guys are all old and decrepit!" It is clear that not every rock star can age as gracefully as Paul McCartney. It is equally clear that the popular saying from the 60's, "Die young and leave a good looking corpse", is nothing more than a hopeful sentiment. Regardless of our age, it is always tempting to live in the past. The past is not a good place to live one's life. W. C. Fields aptly observed, "The good old days, may they never return."

Augustine of Hippo once wrote that there is no such thing as past, present, and future. There is only the present. Within the present is what once was. Within the present is the hope of what will be. We hear this being expressed in the scriptures for this weekend. Through Isaiah, God exhorts the Israelites not to dwell on the past, but to live in the present looking to the future. Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, describes all the things of his past as nothing more than rubbish. He writes, "I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus." In the story of the woman caught in adultery, Jesus abrogates the old Law's call to stone the woman to death by introducing God's "new law." Only those without sin can cast the first stone. When alone with the woman, Jesus demonstrates the tremendous depth of God's new law of love and mercy by forgiving her sin.

Throughout all four gospels, Jesus warns us not to live in the past, e.g. to not look back as we plow the field, to not put new wine into old wineskins. The Church teaches us that we are always evolving and growing into something new. Yet, from the time of the apostles to the present, there is always a segment of the Church who refuses to evolve and wish to dwell only in the past. Neither present nor future is found in the past. Are we a Christian community who live to what we will become, or stuck in what we once were?

Stations of the Cross

For Catholics throughout the world, the Stations of the Cross are synonymous with Lent, Holy Week, and especially, Good Friday. It commemorates 14 key events on the day of Christ's crucifixion. It honors His final walk through the streets of Jerusalem, carrying the Cross. Don't miss these last opportunities for Stations of the Cross this Lent.

Eucharistic Miracles of the World Exhibit

Do you believe in Miracles? Encounter Christ in the Vatican-approved "Eucharistic Miracles of the World" exhibit at Saints Joachim & Anne. This beautiful display is a powerful reminder of Christ's true presence in the Holy Eucharist. Bring the whole family to view descriptions of more than 100 Eucharistic Miracles that have occurred around the world. Join us April 12-14 at our St. Mark campus in Shakopee. Enter through the 3rd Ave. doors. The exhibit is sponsored by Real Presence Eucharistic Education and Adoration Association.

TV MASS FOR THE HOMEBOUND

WUCW Channel 23 (CW) at 9:30 am

Is someone you love unable to join us at church during this holy time of Lent and Easter? For the faithful at home or in healthcare settings, the Heart of the Nation Sunday TV Mass brings spiritual comfort and the blessings of joy-filled hope in our Risen Savior. Please invite anyone you know who cannot get out to church to tune in Catholic Mass on TV or watch online anytime on Sundays at www.HeartoftheNation.org. (For those who can get to church, the TV or online liturgy does not fulfill the Sunday Mass obligation.)

FAITH FORMATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

Summer Disciples of Christ Summer Plus registration is now open. Go to the parish website to register online or download a form. Space will be limited, so sign up soon. I don't have catechists for all grade levels yet, so... if you know of a certified teacher who would be willing to share their love of Jesus with some pretty amazing kids... let me know. If we can't find catechists, we can't offer that grade level. (They would have to take a Virtus training session which is part of our Essential-3.) This is a stipend position...give me a buzz for more information (952) 758-5131. Enjoy God's beautiful creation today!

Vacation Bible School

Plans are in the making for another fun, faith-filled Bible School entitled Shipwrecked, Rescued by Jesus. This camp will be mornings June 24-28. Forms will be available soon. In the meantime, we are looking for two key adult players. One will work with Stacy Moser on providing our shipmates with tasty snacks each of the five days of camp. The other person must love to play! We are looking for someone to work with Marco, the Youth Minister from FaithPoint, on running our Games Station. Join us for this fun week of summer and see God in action. For more information or to volunteer, contact Laura at (952) 758-5131.
