From the Desk of Father Eugene

Padre's Pen ~ Happy Mother's Day

Regarding motherhood, G.K. Chesterton wrote, "How can it be a large career to tell other people's children about the Rule of Three, and a small career to tell one's own children about the universe? How can it be broad to be the same thing to everyone, and narrow to be everything to someone? No; a woman's function is laborious, but because it is gigantic, not because it is minute. I will pity Mrs. Jones for the hugeness of her task; I will never pity her for its smallness."

Dearest mothers, you do indeed have a gigantic task. The nurturing and protecting of life in a womb is but the beginning of a life-changing vocation that comes with a name change. It is no easy task to go from Sue, or Karen, or Annette to "Mommy." Mom's aren't specialists unless you want to call self-sacrificing love a "specialization." Mom's change culture one diaper at a time. They fix hurts and scrapes with a kiss and a Band-aid. They make us children eat our vegetables and take our vitamins, and then they give up the last piece of cake because, "Mommy really isn't hungry." Mom's pick us up and drop us off at all our sporting events and extra-curricular activities. Moms must be all things; not to all people, but to the children of her own flesh and blood.

The mystic Julian of Norwich writes, "The kind, loving mother who knows and sees the need of her child guards it very tenderly, as the nature and condition of motherhood will have." And she continues that this is, in its essence, a participation in the life-giving action of Christ. And since it is a participation in Christ, it is a huge task that is beyond a woman's individual capacity to fulfill. Motherhood is a task with eternal consequences.

So, we honor all our mothers this day and we ask God's blessing upon them. We thank our mothers for the gift of our lives. We pray that our loving God who submitted himself to the authority of a mother in his Incarnation will repay in eternity our mothers who so willingly sacrifice for us.

Again, to all our mothers; HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

With love in Christ,

Rev. Eugene Theisen
 Associate Pastor
 New Prague Area Catholic Community

Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

The fourth Sunday of Easter is usually designated "Good Shepherd" Sunday. Over the three year cycle of readings during Easter, we often hear Jesus speak about his role as the Good Shepherd of humanity. He is the one who will leave his flock to go look for the lost sheep. He is the one ready to lay down his life for his sheep. He identifies those qualities that make a good shepherd and warns us not to follow those shepherds who would abandon their sheep to the wolves.

Universally for all Christians, Jesus is the Shepherd of all humanity. Roman Catholic Christians will assign the Pope the role of Shepherd of the Church. Cross denominationally, most Christians will see the pastors of their parishes as their shepherds. It is a mistake to look upon only the ordained as being shepherds. Historically in the Christian Church, and recently within our own Archdiocese, many we assumed to be our Good Shepherds have been revealed instead to be wolves dressed in shepherd's clothing.

Baptized into Christ, we were intimately joined to Jesus, the Good Shepherd. The DNA of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is a major part of our own DNA. St Paul writes that when we put on Christ at our baptism, our bodies were absorbed within the Body of Jesus. Our bodies are His Body. It is the breath of Jesus we breathe. His blood flows within our veins. As the living and breathing Body of Christ on this earth, we are all called to be Good Shepherds to one another. As Good Shepherds, we are to love, to support, to guide, to protect, and to provide for the needs of all humanity, who are the flock of Jesus.

Under this umbrella of Jesus the Good Shepherd, parents, be Good Shepherds to your children. Children, be Good Shepherds to your parents, and, brothers and sisters. Within our parish, priests, deacons, parish staff be Good Shepherds to your parishioners. Parishioners, be Good Shepherds to your priests, deacons, and parish staff. Within our community, neighbors, be Good Shepherds to those in your neighborhood. For our mayor, and all occupying responsibilities within our city (council members, employees, police, firefighters, EMTs) be Good Shepherds to those you are called to serve. Citizens be Good Shepherds and fulfill your civic responsibilities to those who serve you. This is what we do as Good Shepherds.

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

SAVE THE DATE:

Father Kevin Clinton will be retiring effective June 30, 2019.

Father Clinton will be celebrating his last weekend Masses at the St. Wenceslaus site on June 1-2, 2019.

You are invited to attend a special Open House on Sat., June 1, 2019, after the 5 pm Mass.

The open house will be in the Parish Activities Center.

Join us for food, music, and a short program that night and in offering thanks and appreciation to Fr. Kevin for his ministry to our parish for the last 14 years and to the archdiocese for 45 years.

More information to follow and look for a special invitation to come in the mail.

2019 St. Wenceslaus Festival

It's not too early to start thinking about our parish festival. Mark your calendars for August 11th, so that all can plan to attend. Please remember us in your spring planting this year! We always appreciate the wide variety of produce provided. We are especially in need of volunteers to plant cucumbers and cabbage. If you are willing to grow either of these, please call Carey Vaughan at (952) 292-9222 or Robb Schoenbauer at (952) 201-4727.

God Bless the Newly Baptized

Welcome and congratulations to Grant Anthony Koonst, son of Tyler & Katelyn Koonst. We rejoice with your family on this joyful occasion!

An Invitation from the Green Team ~ 2019

We have many beautiful gardens on our campus, including: three large rain gardens, gardens of native plants, the Mary Garden, a rose garden, lily garden, hosta gardens, pollinator gardens, and many other perennial and annual gardens that beautify our buildings and accent the parking lots. We also have several flowerpots and planters. We need assistance from students, adults, and families to help keep our plantings healthy and looking good all summer. Please consider these volunteer opportunities: spring cleanup, planting, mulching, adopting a garden for the summer, selecting a week or more to help weed and water as needed, or special projects. Contact Kathy McNamara if you can help. kathy.mcnamara@swsaints.org or (952) 200-4949

Communion for Homebound Parishioners

Are you or someone you know unable to attend Mass ~ we can have Communion brought to you in your home. Let us serve you by bringing the Body of Christ to anyone unable to receive at Mass. Please call Deacon Bob Wagner or Ruth Weinandt at 758-3225.

How are you answering His call to discipleship?

Sacristans are needed for Sunday Masses. Anyone interested in discussing the duties and responsibilities of this important Ministry is invited to contact Karen Rauschke at (952) 457-2730. See what it's like to experience setting the Lord's table.

Weekend Help Needed

We are in need of a weekend custodian to make sure the church is ready for weekend activities and Masses. If interested, contact Peter Guzulaitis at (952) 758-3225 or peter.guzulaitis@npcatholic.org.

Spring 2019 Extension Magazine

The spring issue of Catholic Extension's magazine, Extension, celebrates the vital role of women in building our Church in America's poorest places. Please pick up a free copy in the back of church on the credenzas.

CRS Rice Bowl

Our church and school changed lives this Lent, and CRS Rice Bowl wants to say THANK YOU! Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl. Please place them in the box at the back of church.

First Holy Communion

Congratulations to our seven Communicants on the reception of their First Holy Communion. Thank you to Father Theisen for a beautiful Mass, to MaryCarol Wolf for helping coordinate the day, and to everyone who filled the church in support of our young ones. It was a lovely, memorable day for all.

Monthly Saturday Evening Adoration

Our monthly Saturday evening Adoration continues at St. Scholastica. We invite you to join us Sat., May 18th, for Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 6 pm, followed by Adoration, and culminating with Benediction at 8 pm. Confession will be available during part of this time. Mass will take place as usual at 8:15 pm. Please come.

Mary's Month of May

Joining with the various feast days honoring Our Lady under her many titles and virtues, the entire month of May is especially given in devotion to our Mother Mary. In the words of Pope Paul VI, May is "a month which the piety of the faithful has long dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God ... For this is the month during which Christians, in their churches and their homes, offer the Virgin Mother more fervent and loving acts of homage and veneration; and it is the month in which a greater abundance of God's merciful gifts comes down to us from our Mother's throne." Let us especially remember our Blessed Mother on May 13th, the Feast of Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament and also optional Memorial of Our Lady of Fatima, and again on May 31st, the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and strive to crown Mary this month with the blossoms of good deeds.

SAVE THE DATE

Parish Buildings and Grounds Cleaning at St. John's, Union Hill, Wed., June 5th from 3-8:30 pm. If it rains, our back-up date will be June 12th. As the beautiful days of our MN summer are near, we ask your help in sprucing up the Holy Grounds and buildings at St. John's. Many hands will make light work. Bring the entire family for an evening of work and camaraderie with parishioners. Bring your tools and cleaning supplies; dinner will be served. Hot dogs and beverages will be dished up for all.
