From the Desk of Kim Doyle

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you so much for your endless support and prayers for our school. This means so much to all of our families who seek a faith-based educational program for their children and to our school staff who work with compassion in this church ministry. Our role within the parish is to teach our children, the future generation and holders of our beliefs, about our Catholic faith. In a Catholic school, we have daily religion courses, we practice our rich traditions and we participate in ceremony and prayer. We lead our students to service and we broaden their understanding of the needs of the world, near and far.

Surrounded by compassion for God, we also provide a high quality progressive academic program. At SWS, we have highlighted STEM and infused these philosophies into our core instruction. We teach students to be leaders and collaborators. We accept trial and error, creativity, and we stress communication skills. We aim to have our students feel confident and prepared for where their future takes them.

My hopes and prayers are that you continue to support St. Wenceslaus Catholic School keeping it a vital ministry of this parish community. We need your prayer most of all and of course, there are many other ways in which you can offer support. The children of our community deserve to have a school like ours as an option and a place to call home. Let's make sure we keep that for many more years to come.

Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. (John 14:27)

FEAR. Of all the weapons in the world, fear is the greatest of them all. Throughout human history, fear has been used to inflict horrific atrocities on groups of people. Wars and the genocide of peoples are all products of fear. Unscrupulous politicians manipulate and prey on the fears of people to get votes. It matters not what political ideology or party to which they belong.

There are healthy fears, for example, look both ways before crossing a street to avoid getting hit by a car. Or, don't accept rides from strangers. Each and every one of us has something we fear, be it spiders, snakes, heights, enclosed spaces, to name just a few. The Church has used the fear of Hell to prod us into being good. It was a favorite teaching tool of my 2nd grade teacher, Sr. Angeline, who believed that if we were not willing to go to heaven voluntarily, she would scare us into heaven.

However, fears can paralyze us. I remember, shortly after 9/11, attempting to assist a woman paralyzed by her fear of terrorists. She refused to leave her home for fear that a terrorist would kill her. It mattered not explaining that it was highly unlikely a terrorist would target a southwestern suburb of Minneapolis, much less her as a victim. She was so consumed by fear that she eventually needed hospitalization.

Jesus tells his disciples and us that if we are one with him and the One who sent him, we have nothing to fear. If we truly believe in him and love as he loves, our fears will neither possess nor paralyze us. Paul expresses this in his letter to the Romans. "What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8: 35-39). Jesus' message is clear. Be not afraid.

Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord

This Thurs., May 30th, the 40th day of Easter, 39 days after Easter Sunday, marks the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord. Traditionally observed on a Thursday as a holy day of obligation, many dioceses, including our Archdiocese, have moved the observance and obligation to the following Sunday, this year being June 2. Being as the Ascension is the final leg of the Paschal Mystery: Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension into heaven (as mentioned in the Eucharist Prayer of the Mass), it is seen as a joyful feast. Jesus's act of Redemption is not completed until He ascends and returns to His Father, thereby preparing our place in heaven. We may now share in Christ's glory. "God mounts His throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord." Psalm 47
