THE GOSPEL: They all ate and were satisfied.

Luke 9:16

Christ,
you come to us and because we are broken
you are broken,
you bless us
(and our brokenness)
beyond all telling.

You do not leave us.

You stay, and you sustain us as vital food.

Grace becomes like loaves and fishes.

You lavish love prodigally on us
each time you come to us.

You make us one,
since you are our very food and drink.
Let us give your love to each other.

Anne Osdieck

We are broken: strained family relationships, illness and loss, political differences, the abuse crisis in the Church, desperate refugees in many parts of the world, our planet. We have a God who enters into and understands our suffering. It's up to us to bring the power of love to bear and we can do this only with the love of God to guide, strengthen, heal and give us hope. May we be open to the power of the Eucharist.

*Permission granted by St. Louis University Sunday website.

Western Catholic CommunityFrom the Desk of Deacon Bob

A reflection for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time. All of the readings this weekend are about our call to be disciples. We hear the calling of Elisha in the first reading. Paul calls the Galatians to leave their old lives behind them to live Jesus' commandment to love. In the Gospel, Jesus calls people to discipleship and to the demands of being a disciple. 42 years ago, I heard that call to discipleship. 25 years ago; it led me to be ordained a deacon. I composed a hymn for choir that was sung at my ordination Mass. The text I wrote for the hymn describes the life of being a servant/disciple of Jesus. The hymn is addressed to God as Abba (Father), Yeshua (Aramaic for Jesus), and Ruah (Hebrew for Spirit). As Jesus describes in the Gospel, discipleship is not easy, but it is to be the destiny of all Christians. In this, my last bulletin article, I give to you this text (If you wish to hear the music, you can hear it at www.deaconbob94.org).

Abba, Abba.

May we be dwellings of your Holy Love,
the love which You grace all below, above.
May we be dwellings of your Holy Peace,
the peace for which all souls search and seek.
You loved so much that you sent your Son.
Only in You can we live as one,
Dwell in us Father, so that all may feel,
the touch of your love and your peace-filled will.

Yeshua, Yeshua,

May we be servants of You, Eternal Word,
Servants of You, compassionate Lord.
O may we seek you among the very least,
Inviting all to the Father's feast.
You loved so much that You gave Your life.
You conquered our death so that we may rise.
O loving Jesus, may our bodies be
Your living Body for all to see.

Ruah, Ruah.

O Holy Spirit, come and make us whole,
enflame our hearts, our minds, our souls.
Inspire our actions, our fears relieved so we may give to others what we've received.
Vessel of hope on our world outpour,
Your healing breath our lives restore.
Infuse our lives now with Your holy gifts
so in You, source of love, we may always live.
Abba, Yeshua, Ruah.

Overwhelming Gratitude ~ Father Kevin Clinton

On June 1st and 2nd, I celebrated with so many of you my 45th anniversary as an ordained priest and my retirement. Your gifts and best wishes are overwhelming. Thank you. Given responsibilities that I have in June, I will not be able to respond with personal grateful acknowledgement until July. Please know of my gratitude now! ~ Father Kevin

A note from Father Kevin's Sister:

I wanted to share the gratitude felt for the wonderful send off you provided for Kevin. My family attended the Service on Sunday and found it was a 2-kleenex service. We were so touched. It was beautiful.

I am grateful for the love and support Kevin received during his years at St. Wenc. Special thanks to all those who worked closely with him, the staff, the choir and director, the individuals involved in preparing for, working at and presenting at his reception and for all the little things that you've done that go unnoticed, but are so important in managing a parish.

Please share this with those that cared for and supported my Brother.

I am so proud of Kevin and very happy he is retiring; and hopefully, he'll slow down so he can stop and smell the roses.

You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Warm regards,

Martha Clinton Weisgram

A total of 9 yards of mulch (Thanks for the delivery, Steve Rynda) was spread by 5 SWS fifth grade boys and Al Sticha.

Changes Coming:

With Fr. Kevin's retirement and Fr. Eugene Theisen becoming our parochial administrator on June 30, 2019, there are going to be some adjustments. Pamela Sherlock-Larson's duties are being adjusted. In addition to her work with Confirmation and grades 6-8, she will now be working as a liaison to the Western Catholic Community. Pamela will be the point of contact for our parishioners who attend masses at either St. John's or St. Scholastica. She will help communicate upcoming programs, schedule events in the WCC and make sure mass volunteers are scheduled at those churches. Keep your eyes on the bulletin for other changes that will be coming on July 1, 2019.

Prayer for Summer

Father, creator of all, thank you for summer! Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight. Thank you for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation. Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family and for the more casual pace of the summer season. Draw me closer to you this summer. Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of your presence and light my path with your word and counsel. As I enjoy your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and thirst for you. Amen.
