

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 21, 2020

We celebrate, as community, the presence of God in our lives. In the Eucharist, we receive Jesus Christ as our spiritual nourishment through the power of the Holy Spirit.

We joyfully welcome these young members of the New Prague Area Catholic Community to the Lord's table for the first time.

At supper Jesus took bread in His hands. He gave thanks to God. Then He broke the bread into pieces. He gave the bread to His disciples. Jesus said, "This is my body."

Next, Jesus took a cup of wine, He gave thanks to God. Then he passed the cup to His disciples. Jesus said, "This is my blood. It is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins."

Jesus told His followers: "Do this in memory of me." ~ Based on Luke 22:17-20

From the Desk of Father Eugene TheisenPadre's Pen ~
Or "Pastor's Pen"

Two things happened last Friday:

- 1) The Catholic Spirit came with the summer assignments listed and my name was not on that list. It was, to say the least, a bit deflating.
- 2) I received a call later that afternoon informing me that my letter of appointment as Pastor for St. Wenceslaus Catholic Parish was in the mail (and a pdf copy was sent via email as well). It was, to say the least, re-inflating☺

I am pleased to announce that I have been named Pastor. Text of the Letter of Appointment follows:

Dear Father Theisen:

Thank you for your generous service as parochial administrator of The Church of St. Wenceslaus, of New Prague, Minnesota. Given my assessment of both the needs of this Archdiocese as well as your readiness to be named pastor, I am pleased to appoint you as pastor of the same parish, with all the rights, privileges, and obligations of a pastor in accord with the Code of Canon Law and the particular law of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, especially those obligations set forth in canons 519 to 537 of the Code of Canon Law.

This appointment is effective July 1, 2020, with a six-year term that will expire June 30, 2026. This appointment may be renewed in accord with the Archdiocesan policy on term limits for pastors. As pastor of this parish, you will continue to be a member of Deanery 7. Please see the enclosed documents for more information to assist you in the transition.

Through this assignment, you are called to shepherd a community of the faithful that is an integral part of this local Church. As the pastor of this parish, you will have the full care of souls of the people entrusted to your care, serve as the legal representative of the juridic person of the parish, and fulfill the responsibility of a good householder over parish administration. For this community you are to carry out the functions of teaching, sanctifying, and governing, with the cooperation of other presbyters or deacons and with the assistance of lay members of the Christian faithful, according to the norm of law.

Father Theisen, please know that I will be praying that the Lord will bless you in abundance as you begin your pastorate at Saint Wenceslaus.

With every good wish, I remain,

Most Reverend Bernard A. Hebda

Archbishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis

I thank all who have been so supportive of me personally and of St. Wenceslaus, St. John, and St. Scholastica Churches for so many years.

Ad Christum per Mariam,
Fr. Theisen

*Fr. Theisen's Installment Mass will be held Wednesday, July 1st, at 5 pm at St. Wenceslaus Church. The Mass will be livestreamed ~ Please join us!

Western Catholic Community

St. John & St. Scholastica

~ Today we will learn a bit more about Debbie Gregor, our Director of Liturgical Music.

What was your role in ministry for our parish prior to COVID-19?

Debbie: The same ~ I'm the Director of Liturgical Music

How has that role changed over the last three plus months?

Debbie: I've changed from directing various choirs and groups of singers for Masses, funerals, and weddings to providing music for liturgies myself or using a cantor. All rehearsals are currently on hold and planning for Masses is very different.

What blessing have you noticed that has come out of this time in our parish?

Debbie: There are many blessings found during this time. We have been taught to slow down and take the time to appreciate the little things. For example, Masses with one family, Father, a cantor, and myself took on a new meaning. Every Mass was even more special and prayerful. The power of the Holy Spirit was often evident when, unknown to him, Father's homily would directly tie into the following hymn.

What do you miss about the way it used to be?

Debbie: I miss my groups and seeing parishioners on a regular basis. Our music groups are like a family. They always support each other. Rehearsals are always filled with laughter. I often joke I should be paying them for weekly therapy. "Singing is like praying twice." I miss singing and praying with everyone.

I have shared this with my groups and it is food for thought during this time:

Look at Your Loaves

God [always makes] good on his promise to match our gifts, such as they [are], with his own. It is something to remember when the crowd looks too big, the odds too poor, the work too hard, the situation too hopeless. It is something to remember when our own resources look too meager, our efforts too puny, our spirits too low.

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

Stop staring at the crowd; go look at your loaves. How many do you have? Any answer will do. Now follow the leader. Take what you have ~ whatever you have ~ take it into your hands and hold it lightly, very lightly. Then bless it ~ thank God for what you have and make it holy by giving it away from love. Then break it ~ sorry, but you have to tear it up to share it, there is no way to keep it all in one nice piece. And finally, give it ~ to whoever is standing in front of you, beside you ~ spread it around, and never mind that there does not seem to be enough for everyone. It is not up to you to feed the whole crowd, to solve the whole problem, or to fix the whole world. It is up to you just to share what you have got, to feed whatever big or little hunger that happens to be standing right in front of you. The rest will come. Because God is God, the rest will come. For now, for your part, how many loaves have you? Go and see.

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Laudato Si at Five Years

Pope Francis released his encyclical Laudato Si: On Care for our Common Home in June of 2015. Five years later it's still relevant and worth digging into.

This is the first of a series of summaries and reflections on the document.

Pope Francis was not the first pope to show concern for how we are living in this world.

- In his first encyclical, St. John Paul II called for a global ecological conversion and coined the term "human ecology."
- In 1971, Pope Paul VI referred to the "tragic consequence" of unchecked human activity on the planet and warned of "the urgent need for a radical change."
- Pope Benedict also sounded the alarm and, before Pope Francis, was actually called the "Green Pope" because of his strongly worded and oft stated concern for environmental responsibility. He issued 10 Commandments for the Environment.
- One of the defining themes of Pope Francis' papacy has been his outspoken critique of our treatment of the planet and each other. He further developed Pope John Paul II's teaching on human ecology and critiqued economic systems, materialism, and technology and their impacts on the human family and the planet. The name he chose, Francis, reflects his appreciation for the example St. Francis gave us through his love and respect for all of creation.

Why should we care? We care because we have children, grandchildren ~ for future generations. Because we will be called to answer for our own stewardship of the gifts God has given us. Because loving our neighbor includes caring for the least of our brothers and sisters, who are most likely to be impacted by climate change and the uneven distribution of wealth and resources.

Let's not turn our eyes and attention away from the challenge before us. There are things all of us can do to make a difference. Stay tuned.

FAITH FORMATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

A letter to our 2nd graders ~

"Go in peace to love and serve the Lord"

Where have you heard that recited? If you said you heard it at the end of Mass, you are correct! Those are some tall orders, and if we had to rely on our own strength and power to get the job done....well, it would be tough, if not impossible!

But we don't. We have a God who loves us and wants to accompany us on our journey. And now you, our dear second graders, have been given the gift of meeting Jesus in a whole new way. Jesus wants to be close to each one of us. For us to receive Him through our mouths and into our hearts and souls, well you can't get much closer than that.

We eat food to make our bodies strong and fit, allowing us to grow and have the strength we need to live our lives. The Eucharist is more important ~ it nourishes us to live as Disciples (followers) of Jesus. It gives us the inner strength we need to grow in our relationship with Jesus and keep us strong to avoid the temptations in life. It helps us to "be the good" in our world and stand up for what is right and of God.

Each day when you wake up, ask God to bless your day. Each time you receive Jesus in Holy Communion, ask Him to open your heart, and give you the strength to do what is right. And each night when you go to bed, review your day and ask Jesus to show you where you needed more of His guidance and where you glowed with the light of Christ inside you.

Jesus is always with you as your friend, savior, and helper. Turn to Him throughout your day and pray to Him... Jesus, faithful friend, help me to remember that you always walk with me. Give me the inner strength to be your Disciple and share your love with others. Amen.

Congratulations to all our second graders who will be receiving Christ in the Eucharist over the course of the next month. Please keep them and their families in your prayers as they continue to grow in the awareness of Jesus as they "Go in peace to love and serve the Lord."

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The true measure of love

How do we know we're loved? It's more than a matter of hearing the words or seeing them written in a card. Love has something to do with fidelity: showing up, being there, not leaving when the stampede is moving in the direction of the door. Love makes sacrifices, shares times of want along with seasons of plenty. Love generously supports and honestly challenges. Love lets go when the time is right. On this Father's Day, celebrate those who have embraced the vocation to show a father's love and helped you recognize your true worth.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 20:10-13; Romans 5:12-15; Matthew 10:26-33 (94). "So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows."

Monday, Jun 22, 2020

MEMORIAL OF PAULINUS OF NOLA, BISHOP

Simplicity is next to Godliness

Paulinus of Nola had it all—a successful career and wealth that enabled him to retire early—and then he didn't. After his only child died as a baby, he and his wife started shedding their life of leisure that sorrow must have rendered insensible. Today, as the world changes dramatically, and our lives with it, we can relate. Paulinus eventually became a monk and celebrated Christian poet. After his wife died, he was named bishop and ended up being friends with many future saints, including Augustine, Jerome, Ambrose, and Gregory the Great. With God's help, you too can turn your own tragedies into triumph in Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 17:5-8, 13-15a, 18; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Tuesday, Jun 23, 2020Essential work calls

Today, designated International Widows' Day by the United Nations, is a good day to remember all families that have lost a loved one due to coronavirus—especially families that are most vulnerable, with children or a limited livelihood. As Pope Benedict XVI affirmed in his encyclical Deus Caritas Est, "love for widows and orphans, prisoners, and the sick and needy of every kind is as essential" to the church "as the ministry of the sacraments and preaching of the gospel." How can you be Christ's hands and feet today, to help provide sustenance to hurting families and lessen their suffering?

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 19:9b-11, 14-21, 31-35a, 36; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you."

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

Give it away

John the Baptist is considered the opening act for Jesus, the forerunner and the one who prepared people to receive the message of Jesus. A better spokesperson could not be found. John's noble counsel that we share our extra coat and food with those who need them holds true today, ever more in these difficult times when we have learned the imperative need to care for one another. Head to the closet—what can you give away?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "What, then, will this child be? For surely the hand of the Lord was with him."

Thursday, Jun 25, 2020Come quick, compassion

The COVID-19 pandemic leaves deep scars around the world. The words of today's psalm are vividly true: "May your compassion quickly come to us, for we are brought very low." The church teaches that God's compassion is always at hand. Suffering can be excruciating, but God's presence endures. Be a compassionate presence to someone who is hurting. The heart you heal may end up being your own.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 24:8-17; Matthew 7:21-29 (374). "Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock."

Friday, Jun 26, 2020Make us clean

Today is International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking. This year's theme of "Health for Justice. Justice for Health" captures the complexity of the problem, including the need for widespread accountability and equal access to treatment. As a society, we recognize "international days" as a way to raise awareness about global problems and celebrate achievements. The bad news: Worldwide, 35 million people now suffer from drug disorders; the good news: Cooperation among nations is becoming more coordinated and sustained. In April 2020, during a month the church dedicated to the "drama of addiction," Pope Francis prayed that "those suffering from addiction may be properly helped and accompanied." It is a prayer worth repeating.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 25:1-12; Matthew 8:1-4 (375). "Lord, if you wish, you can make me clean."

Saturday, Jun 27, 2020

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Mellow sainthood

Fifth-century Saint Cyril of Alexandria began his career as archbishop with intolerant impulses, expelling Jews from the city. But with time he softened his views, and so is remembered instead for opposing the idea that Jesus' humanity was a mere disguise. How compassionate Jesus is toward the centurion in today's gospel, how tenderly he touches the hand of Peter's mother-in-law. Surely he shows the best of being human, nothing is camouflage. In the process of maturing, how have your own hard edges been softened and made compassionate?

TODAY'S READINGS: Lamentations 2:2, 10-14, 18-19; Matthew 8:5-17 (376). "He took our infirmities and bore our diseases."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
