From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen

Padre's Pen ~
Thank You,
Difficult Times,
40 Days for Life

Many thanks to all who went the extra mile this past week for our St. Wenceslaus Feast Day celebrations: Those who stood vigil with our Lord in Adoration all day, those who joined in our Eucharistic Procession (it was particularly moving for me to see our school children lining the route outside and kneeling as we passed), those who contributed to the School for the Marathon events and the families who came out and supported the kids while they ran inside the fence. Thanks to the Knights of Columbus 4th Degree who provided honor guard and escort for the Procession, the Benediction and the Mass. Thank you to the many who supported me (and Ron McBroom) in the Marathon fundraiser. Thanks to Principals, teachers, staff, parishioners and all.

I know these are difficult times; it takes a lot of extra work to pull off successful and safe events in these times of COVID. I am seeing some of the same things now in our parish and in the New Prague area that I witnessed while deployed in combat zones. People are getting frustrated, anxious, bitter, fearful, and even angry with policies and people. I gently remind everyone that we are all the sons and daughters of God and have an equal dignity as temples of the Holy Spirit. We may have disagreements about a great many things but that does not mean we have to be disagreeable.

Finally, a little reminder that we are sponsoring a day of prayer in front of the Planned Parenthood abortion facility in St. Paul on Saturday, the 24th of October for the 40 Days for Life campaign. Please contact Victoria Pauling at 952-393-8056 to sign up for an hour of prayer in front of the facility.

Ad Christum per Mariam, Fr. Theisen

Feast of Saint Frances

October 4, 2020

October 4, the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi, marks the end of the Season of Creation. This special time for prayer for our earth and all its peoples began on September 1, designated by Pope Francis as the World Day of Prayer for Creation. It's also a time to grow in awareness of how climate change is affecting the quality of life on the planet.

The recent wildfires and hurricanes devastating areas of our nation are a wakeup call. Significant effort in the next decade to reduce global greenhouse gases ~ cutting them nearly by half ~ is seen as paramount to meet the goal of holding global warming between 1.5 and 2 degrees Celsius. Scientists believe that any temperature rise above this level will have catastrophic impacts on life and the planet.

The past three popes each have emphasized how caring for creation is an essential part of Christian faith and is closely linked to other issues, including those relating to life, as Pope Benedict XVI said in his 2010 message to the Vatican diplomatic corps: "How can we separate, or even set at odds, the protection of the environment and the protection of human life, including the life of the unborn?"

Thank you from the Green Team

Thank you to families, individuals, and the students that planted flowers, spread mulch, weeded, watered, and dead-headed plants in the parish and school gardens and planters this year.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Dear Parents, Grandparents, and Friends of SWS,
 Reminder of the importance of being especially kind and especially human in a good way during this COVID Pandemic. Here at SWS we are working very hard to do what is good for our students and staff. We are so appreciative of the people who give us a kind word of support as we navigate in an unknown school world. Our staff is doing an outstanding job of teaching, trying to make school life as normal as possible. In line with our school mission, we want our students to grow in their love for God, to form kind souls as they care for each other, and to also receive a great academic education. Let's be kind. God will see that we are trying to be good humans. Let's please and praise Him!

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Celebrate the joy of new life

In a happy collision of observances, October is dedicated to respecting life, supporting fair trade, employing the differently abled, and praying the Rosary. Today is not only Respect Life Sunday but also, in memory of Francis of Assisi, an occasion to bless the animals who share our lives. If you're seeking an integrated moral code, here's your chance to champion the spectrum of life. The Rosary's Joyful Mysteries lead the way: embrace new life, encourage mothers, support child-affirming laws, recognize the gifts of all God's children, and respect the wisdom of young people.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 5:1-7; Philippians 4:6-9; Matthew 21:33-43 (139). "Finally, [the landowner] sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.'"

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED FRANCIS XAVIER SEELOS, PRIEST

A saint for this season

As we've lately learned, it's hard to be happy during a health crisis, but Redemptorist Father Francis Xavier Seelos was called the "Cheerful Ascetic," even while serving the sick during a disease outbreak. Known for his kindness and missionary zeal, this German-born priest kept his sermons simple for everyone to understand and was sought out as a compassionate confessor. He was an itinerant preacher throughout the Eastern and Midwestern United States, before being sent to New Orleans where he died of yellow fever. Those seeking healing can submit their prayer petition to the National Shrine of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 1:6-12; Luke 10:25-37 (461). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart . . . and your neighbor as yourself."

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED MARIE ROSE DUROCHER, VIRGIN

When Mary receives a Martha job

Jesus said his friend Mary was right to cease activity, to simply sit at his feet and listen. But the church may ask you to be more like Martha—to reach out to the world, as Jesus also called on his followers to do. Such was the dilemma of Marie Rose Durocher. This quiet and frail young woman preferred the quiet life but was pressed into pastoral service by her brother, a Montreal priest in the 1830s. Then her bishop asked her to start a new religious community to help educate the young. How is God asking you to move beyond your own comfort zone today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 1:13-24; Luke 10:38-42 (462). "A woman whose name was Martha welcomed him."

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

Protect us from harm

The Rosary has been a favored Catholic form of prayer for centuries. Inviting us to pray five Our Fathers, 50 Hail Marys, and five Glory Be's while meditating on gospel stories from Mary's and Jesus' lives, this spiritual practice has helped generations of Catholics ask for Mary's intercession. In October 1571, Catholic soldiers prayed the Rosary to prepare for battle with Turkish soldiers in the Gulf of Corinth. When they won that battle, Pope Pius V claimed that October 7 would be known as the Feast of Our Lady of Victory. Two years later, his successor, Gregory XIII, changed the name to the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. As our world faces the challenge of the COVID-19 virus, we again ask for Mary's intercession. Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 2:1-2, 7-14; Luke 11:1-4 (463). "Jesus was praying in a certain place."

Thursday, Oct 08, 2020Persistence pays off

Prayer is not like an ATM whereby requests are entered and dispensed. Ultimately our model is Jesus. Christ's persistence in prayer united him with God but did not erase his suffering. He sweated blood, he was crucified. When we do not receive the answer we are hoping for to our prayer request, we may suffer too, but, like Jesus, we can open ourselves to deeper union with God. Take time today to offer God your needs, trusting that God's strength and presence always suffices.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:1-5; Luke 11:5-13 (464). "If you . . . give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

Friday, Oct 09, 2020God casts out evil

Although Hollywood has popularized exorcism with such movies as The Exorcist (1973) and more recently The Conjuring series, exorcism is a legitimate rite in the church. An exorcism is actually a form of prayer. It is used in situations where the faithful experience a force of evil or the "powers of darkness," which we call the devil or demons. Recognizing the place of exorcism in the prayers of the church is important because it reminds us that God has already freed us from the snare of evil. As you encounter various "demons" in your life, remember to pray: Call upon God to be with you and to separate you from all that is evil and to surround you with God's love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:7-14; Luke 11:15-26 (465). "But if it is by the finger of God that [I] drive out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you."

Saturday, Oct 10, 2020Put on your dancing shoes!

On this day, the Jewish community celebrates Simchat Torah. This joyous harvest festival marks the beginning and end of the annual Torah reading, and culminates in dancing with the sacred texts. In a similar sense of celebration, Jesus says to his disciples, "Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it." Choose scripture as your companion, and get ready to shimmy, shake, rock and roll, and trip the light fantastic all for the greater glory of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:22-29; Luke 11:27-28 (466). "And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise."
